

REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES FOR WIDOW'S OR WIDOWER'S INSURANCE BENEFITSCHANGES TO BE REPORTED AND HOW TO REPORT

FAILURE TO REPORT MAY RESULT IN OVERPAYMENTS THAT MUST BE REPAYED, AND IN POSSIBLE MONETARY PENALTIES

- You change your mailing address for checks ^{insert comma} or residence. (To avoid delay in receipt of checks, you should ALSO file a regular change of address notice with your post office.)
- Your citizenship or immigration status changes.
- You go outside the U.S.A. for 30 consecutive days or longer.
- Any beneficiary dies or becomes unable to handle benefits.
- Work Changes - On your application you told us you expect total earnings for _____ to be $ _____ a month.
- You begin to receive a pension, annuity, or a lump sum payment based on your government employment not covered by Social Security or your pension or annuity amount changes or stops.
- You have an unsatisfied warrant for more than 30 continuous days for your arrest for a crime or attempted crime that is a felony or flight to avoid prosecution or confinement, escape from custody, and flight-escape. In most jurisdictions that do not classify crimes as felonies, this applies to a crime that is punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding 1 year (regardless of the actual sentence imposed).

You (are) (are not) earning wages of more than $ _____ a month.

You (are) (are not) self-employed rendering substantial services in your trade or business.

(Report AT ONCE if this work pattern changes)

- Change of Marital Status - Marriage, divorce, annulment of marriage. You must report a change in marital status even if you believe that an exception applies.
- Custody Change or Disability Improves - Report if a person for whom you are filing, or who is in your care dies, leaves your care or custody, changes address, or, if disabled, the condition improves.
- You are confined for more than 30 continuous days to jail, prison, penal institution or correctional facility for conviction of a crime or you are confined to a public institution by court order in connection with a crime.

WORK AND EARNINGS

For those under full retirement age, the law requires that a report of earnings be filed with SSA within 3 months and 15 days after the end of any taxable year in which you earn more than the annual exempt amount. You may contact SSA to file a report. Otherwise, SSA will use the earnings reported by your employer(s) and your self-employment tax return (if applicable) as the report of earnings required by law and adjust benefits under the earnings test. It is your responsibility to ensure that the information you give concerning your earnings is correct. You must furnish additional information as needed when your benefit adjustment is not correct based on the earnings on your record.

HOW TO REPORT

You can make your reports by telephone, mail, in person, or online, whichever you prefer.

If you are awarded benefits, and one or more of the above change(s) occur, you should report by: Online Services

NOTICE ABOUT DOCUMENTS

We recommend that you keep copies of all documents you submitted to us.

We are returning the documents you submitted with this claim.

Privacy Act Statement
Collection and Use of Personal Information

See Revised Privacy Act Statement Attached

~~Section 202, 205, and 233 of the Social Security Act, as amended, authorize us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to determine eligibility of you or a dependent for Social Security benefits.~~

~~Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide us with all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on your entitlement or a dependent's entitlement to Social Security benefit payments.~~

~~We rarely use the information you supply us for any purpose other than for making a determination relating to your entitlement or a dependent's entitlement to Social Security benefit payments. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following:~~

- ~~1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist us in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage;~~
- ~~2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from our records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans' Affairs);~~
- ~~3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and,~~
- ~~4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of our programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census).~~

~~We may also use the information you give us in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.~~

~~A complete list of routine uses of the information you provided us is available in our System of Records Notice entitled, Master Beneficiary Record, 60-0090. This notice, additional information regarding this form, and information regarding our programs and systems, are available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.~~

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT STATEMENT - This information collection meets the requirements of 44 U.S.C. §3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. You do not need to answer these questions unless we display a valid Office of Management and Budget control number. The OMB control number for this collection is 0960-0004. We estimate that it will take about 15 minutes to read the instructions, gather the facts, and answer the questions. Send only comments relating to our time estimate above to SSA, 6401 Security Blvd. Baltimore, MD 21235-6401.

SSA will insert the following revised Privacy Act Statement into the form as soon as possible:

Privacy Act Statement
Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 202(e) and 202(f) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allow us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide us with all or part of the information could prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on your entitlement for widow or widower benefits.

We will use the information to make a determination for entitlement to widow or widower benefits. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To contractors and other Federal agencies, as necessary, for assisting Social Security Administration (SSA) in the efficient administration of its programs. We contemplate disclosing information under this routine use only in situations in which SSA may enter a contractual or similar agreement, with a third party to assist in accomplishing an agency function relating to this system of records; and
- To third party contacts, especially in situations where the party to be contacted has, or is expected to have, information relating to the individual's capability to manage his/her affairs or his/her eligibility for or entitlement to benefits under the Social Security program; when the data are needed to establish the validity of evidence; to verify the accuracy of information presented by the individual and, if it concerns his/her eligibility for benefits under the Social Security program.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notices (SORN) 60-0089, entitled Claims Folders System, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on April 1, 2003, at 68 FR 15784 and 60-0090 entitled Master Beneficiary Record, as published in the FR on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1826. Additional information, and a full listing of all our SORNs, is available on our website at www.ssa.gov/privacy.
