FAQ

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the 2017 Census Test

The 2017 Census Test is a survey that the U.S. Census Bureau is conducting in preparation for the 2020 Census. The goal of this survey is to develop new methods that will make the next census easier, more convenient, and less costly for taxpayers.

2. Do I have to complete this survey?

This survey is mandatory, but will only take about 10 minutes to complete. We are conducting this survey under the authority of Title 13 United States Code, Section 193. This survey has been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). For this survey, the OMB approval number is ###-####.

3. Why was I selected for this survey?

The U.S. Census Bureau chose your address, not you personally, as part of a randomly selected sample. Your address was selected to represent a cross section of households in your community.

4. Who should complete the survey?

This survey should be completed by the person who owns or rents the living quarters or any other person who is at least 15 years of age with knowledge of the household.

5. How do I change my answers?

For questions where you must choose a single response from a list, clicking another response will change your answer to that response.

If it is a "check all that apply" question, you may click on a selected check box to unselect the box and remove it as one of your answers.

6. How long will it take to complete this survey?

The U.S. Census Bureau estimates that, for the average household, this survey will take about 10 minutes to complete, including the time for reviewing the instructions and answers.

Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this burden to: Paperwork Reduction Project ###-####, U.S. Census Bureau, DCMD-2H174, 4600 Silver Hill Road, Washington, DC 20233. You may e-mail comments to 2020.census.paperwork@census.gov; use "Paperwork Project ###-####" as the subject.

Respondents are not required to respond to any information collection unless it displays a valid approval number from the Office of Management and Budget. The OMB approval number for this survey is ###-####.

7. What types of questions will I be asked?

In this survey, you will be asked if the housing unit is rented or owned and for the names of everyone living in the household. For each person living in the household, you will be
