We are asking you to agree to freeze part of your blood and oral fluid specimens at the CDC for future use. We may use these samples for research in the future. Nothing that could be linked to you will be kept with your blood or oral fluid specimens. We are not sure what studies might be done in the future. They might include standard tests as done at hospitals, tests for HIV or other viruses

I give consent for my blood and oral specimens to be stored at CDC for the future use as outlined above.

We will now ask you some questions about sexual experiences you've had in the past 3 months. We only want to know about partners' you had oral, anal or vaginal sex with since 04/08/2015.

Some questions will ask specifically about your sex partners' HIV status and what you did with partners who were HIV positive, HIV negative, and partners whose HIV status you did not know. We know you can't always be sure of a partner's HIV status. Please try to answer the questions based on what you knew and what your partners told you or did not tell you about their HIV status.

Except where we ask specifically about transgender partners, please include these sex partners in your responses to the questions about sex with either men or women, whichever you think is most appropriate.

We also know that how people refer to their genitals can be unique and personal. The following questions may use words that don't perfectly fit how you or your partners refer to your bodies. Please answer the questions about specific sex acts the best that you can.

Thinking about the 3 men you had anal sex with in the past 3 months other than Partner #1, Partner #2 and Partner #3, how would you describe your relationship with each of them? Check all that apply and please describe each partner with only one category.

A primary sex partner

Someone you had sexual contact with only 1 time, but could find again if necessary.

Someone you have sex with on a regular basis, but not a main partner

Someone you've never met before, had sexual contact with and never plan to see again.

Someone you had sexual contact with more than once, but not on a regular basis and who you normally socialize with:

Someone you gave sex too for money or other goods or someone who gave you sex for money or other goods.

Someone you had sexual contact with more than once, but not on a regular basis and who you don't socialize with:
