Recently at the DMV, on behalf of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, we asked you to participate in a research study to help improve the safety of teen drivers. You were asked to go to the following website address and complete a 45-minute driver training program within two weeks of our invitation to you:

[website address]

Our records show that you have not completed this driver training program. Please do so as soon as possible, and $5 will be mailed to you for helping us.

Only a small group of teens were asked to participate in this research study, so it is extremely important that you complete the driver training program for us. The information collected from this study will help the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration improve the safety of young drivers.
