Subject: Participants needed for study ($40)

The U.S. Census Bureau is looking for adults (ages 18 to 49) receiving SNAP food assistance benefits to take part in a research study to test messaging about work requirements. Interviews last one hour and will take place at a convenient location, in and around Orlando, Florida. We will provide $40 to each person who participates in the study.

If you personally receive food stamps or have an EBT card, you may be eligible.

If interested, please call 1-866-599-4642 or email csm.participate@census.gov to see if you are eligible to participate. Please mention Food Assistance Study when you call or email.

Please feel free to pass this request along to other people that you may know in the Orlando, Florida area. Only one person per household may qualify.

Federal employees are not eligible to receive the $40.
