The screenshot shows the DisasterAssistance.gov website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the following links: Home, Get Assistance, Information, About Us, Help, Search, and Español. Below the navigation bar, there are two notification banners. The first banner is light blue and contains the text: "Starting 1/1/2018, and until further notice, FEMA will no longer send SMS/text messages. You will continue to receive updates by email or postal address." The second banner is yellow and contains the text: "Use the Transitional Sheltering Assistance Hotel Locator if you need a place to stay." Below the banners is a large search area with a white background and a blue border. It contains the text: "Enter your city and state or ZIP code to see if your area has been declared for Individual Assistance." Below this text is a search input field with the example text: "Example: 'Houston, TX' OR '77004' OR 'Houston, TX 77004'". To the right of the input field is a blue button labeled "Look-up". Below the input field is a note: "NOTE: Your address and personal data will not be stored." To the right of the search area is a "Top" button. Below the search area are three main navigation buttons: "Find Assistance" with a magnifying glass icon, "Apply Online" with a clipboard icon, and "Check Status" with a checkmark icon. Below these buttons is a section titled "Find Local Resources" with a location pin icon. The text below this section reads: "To find help for your immediate needs, please enter an address to get a list of the closest FEMA Disaster Recovery Centers (DRCs), starting with the closest three." At the bottom right of the page, there is a "100%" zoom level indicator.

If you are a disaster survivor, you may qualify for federal assistance.

The registration process will take 18-20 minutes. The process is authorized by the Office of Management and Budget under Control number 1660-0002 with an expiration of February 28, 2021.

- If you are applying for both home and business disaster assistance, complete one registration to cover both.
- If you are applying for multiple disasters, you will need to complete a registration for each disaster.

You'll need the following to complete your registration:

- Social Security Number (SSN), or, the SSN of a minor child in the household who is a U.S. Citizen, Non-Citizen National or Qualified Alien.
- Annual Household Income
- Contact Information (phone number, mailing address, email address*, and damaged home address)
- Insurance Information (coverage, insurance company name, etc.)
- Bank Account Information (if you are eligible to receive financial assistance, the money can be deposited in your account)

Note: You must provide an email address if you want to review your registration status online. If you do not provide an email address, you will be required to contact FEMA for any updates to your registration.

If you need further information or assistance:

Call the FEMA Helpline at 1-800-621-FEMA (1-800-621-3362). This number is also for users of 711 or Video Relay Service (VRS). TTY users can call 1-800-462-7585. Helpline services are available seven days a week from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. ET.

If you are having technical issues, call FEMA's Internet Help Desk at 1-800-745-0243. They are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

To learn more, review the Individuals and Households Program Unified Guidance. This provides policy and eligibility information for all assistance under the Individuals and Households Program (IHP). Visit the Individual Disaster Assistance page for more details. You may also view Disasters by calendar year or find other agency support by disaster.

Registration Instructions

The application process will take approximately 18 - 20 minutes. An asterisk (*) identifies required fields which you must answer to complete the registration.

Paperwork Burden Disclosure Notice (FEMA Form 009-0-1)
Public reporting burden for this data collection is estimated to average 18 minutes per response. The burden estimate includes the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and submitting this form. This collection of information is required to obtain or retain benefits. You are not required to respond to this collection of information unless a valid OMB control number is displayed on this form. Send comments regarding the accuracy of the burden estimate and any suggestions for reducing the burden to: Information Collections Management, Department of Homeland Security, Federal Emergency Management Agency, 1800 South Bell Street, Arlington, VA 20598-3005, Paperwork Reduction Project (1660-0002). NOTE: Do not send your completed form to this address.

You will be presented with a series of screens. Each screen has important information and/or a set of related questions.

- For help on any field click the Help for this page. This will provide helpful information about how to answer each question as you progress through the application.
- Read the information carefully and answer the questions on the screen. When you have read the information and answered all of the required questions, click the "Next" button at the bottom of the page to continue the registration process.
- As you progress through the registration process, the tabs at the top of the screen change. You can review any of the information you previously submitted by selecting the appropriate tab.
- You can cancel your application at any time by clicking "Exit Registration".

Note: It is important to know that your registration becomes a legal document. FEMA may use external sources to verify the accuracy of the information you enter. If you intentionally make false statements or hide information to try to get assistance, it's a violation of federal and state laws. This can carry severe criminal and civil penalties. Penalties may include a fine of up to $250,000, imprisonment, or both (16 U.S.C § 287, 1001, and 3571).

Now, we want to know about your lodging, food, and medical needs. We'll also need to know about damage to your vehicle(s) and personal property.

Please have your insurance information available (home, flood, car, etc.) to add to your application. If you don't have your policy numbers right now, that is OK. You can give us that information later.

NOTE: Reimbursement for spoiled food is not covered by FEMA's Individual and Households Program (IHP). Contact your insurance company to ask about your coverage.

NOTE: We cannot provide money to individuals or households for losses already covered by insurance. If you have not already contacted your insurance agent to file a claim, please do this as soon as possible. Failure to file a claim with your insurance company may affect you getting grant assistance.

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the Disaster Assistance Center website. The URL in the address bar is <https://staging.disasterassistance.gov/DAC/ri/income.do>. The page header includes the logo for Disaster Assistance.gov and the tagline "ACCESS TO DISASTER HELP AND RESOURCES". A navigation menu at the top lists "Disaster Assistance" and "Contact Us". Below this, a breadcrumb trail shows "Introduction | Identification | Disaster | Losses | Occupants | Financial |".

The main content area is titled "Income Verification" and features an "Application Progress" indicator with 10 dots, the 10th of which is filled. The text on the page reads: "Help for this page: You previously told us your household income was 4000 dollars. You are required to include social security, unemployment, pensions, disability, welfare, child support, stocks, interest, and/or annuities when determining your annual income. Failure to disclose your total income could result in fines and/or imprisonment. To adjust your income at this time to meet the guidelines you are required to return to the income page by selecting the Back button or select the 'Financial Information' link located on the left hand side menu. If this is your correct annual household income select the box below to certify." Below this text is a text input field containing the number "4000" and a checkbox labeled "* I certify this is my total annual income".

At the bottom of the form area, there are three buttons: "Back", "Save or Exit", and "Next". The footer of the page shows a zoom level of "100%".

How would you like to receive your correspondence from FEMA?

* In which language would you like to receive correspondence?

* Do you prefer to receive traditional postal mail or electronic notification? Postal Mail E-Mail

By choosing electronic correspondence (email), you will:

- Receive an email alert telling you an update has been made to your registration.
- Need to create an online account to view the updates and information from FEMA. There is more information about creating an account later in the registration process.
- Not receive any correspondence from FEMA through the U.S. Postal Service (USPS).

If you haven't already done so, provide your email address:

* Email Address:

* Verify E-Mail Address:

If you need to change the email address you entered at the beginning of the registration, click the Identification link at the top of this screen.

If you do not receive an email from FEMA within the next 7 days, or to change your correspondence preference, please call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362.

- * Yes, proceed with Electronic correspondence.
 No, change preference to Postal Mail.

You are about to submit your FEMA registration. Please carefully review the information below. Click Edit to make changes or click Submit to submit your registration to FEMA. You will only be able to make limited changes after you submit your registration.

By clicking Submit below I certify that:

- * Only one application has been submitted for my household.
- * All information I have provided regarding my application for FEMA disaster assistance is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
- * I will return any disaster aid money I received from FEMA or the State if I receive insurance or other money for the same loss, or if I do not use FEMA disaster aid money for the purpose for which it was intended.

I understand that, if I intentionally make false statements or conceal any information in an attempt to obtain disaster aid, it is a violation of federal and State laws, which carry severe criminal and civil penalties, including a fine up to $250,000, imprisonment, or both (18 U.S.C. §§ 287, 1001, and 3571).

I understand that the information provided regarding my application for FEMA disaster assistance may be subject to sharing within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) including, but not limited to, the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

I authorize FEMA to verify all information given by me about my property/place of residence, income, employment and dependents in order to determine my eligibility for disaster assistance; and

I authorize all custodians of records of my insurance, employer, any public or private entity, bank financial or credit data service to release information to FEMA and/or the State upon request.
