PLEASE READ BEFORE COMPLETING THE SURVEY

HOUSEHOLD GOODS (HHG). The maximum weight limit for HHG is 18,000 lbs. If the weight of your HHG exceeds the authorized weight limit, you will receive notice from the Exchange/AAFES regarding repayment for the excess amount. Typically, you should pack HHG's two weeks prior to reporting to your new duty station unless circumstances warrant otherwise (for example, going to a foreign overseas location).

FOREIGN TRANSFER ALLOWANCES (FTA). Associates who are transferring to a foreign overseas location are authorized to stay in temporary lodging (hotel) up to 10 days before departure. Please plan your HHG pack out and airline reservations accordingly.

POINT OF CONTACT. The POC for HHG, Non-Temporary Storage and Unaccompanied Baggage shipments is The Relocation Team at 214-312-2502.

Please answer the questions in order for us to set up your move. Once you complete this questionnaire, click on the FINISH tab.

If this is an OCONUS move, please read carefully and respond "Yes" on the next question. If this is not an OCONUS move, select "No" on the next question. NOTE: Hawaii, Alaska, Guam and Puerto Rico are considered OCONUS moves. They are non-foreign OCONUS moves.

When you go OCONUS, you are authorized to:

- Ship your HHG to your new duty station.
- Permanently store HHG's in the vicinity of your current (present) duty station until you return to CONUS.
- Ship unaccompanied baggage (also referred to as hold baggage). This shipment is not authorized to go into storage; you are required to accept this shipment when it arrives. Since this is transported by an expedited mode, it is more expensive. Note: The Exchange will be required to charge you all storage fees if the baggage goes into temporary storage. Charges would also include unpacking, handling in and delivery out. Typically, each shipment is contracted to a different company, so we do not recommend any HHG/Unaccompanied shipments be scheduled for the same day, but on separate days.
