Attachment Z: Listing of Proposed Items for 2019

Proposed Questions to be asked beginning in 2019

Section	Content	Source
End of Consumption of Alcohol	If a respondent has received treatment for alcohol and/ or drug use, they receive the following question on medication-assisted treatment:	New proposed questions. The passage of the 21 st
AICONOI	Introduction:	Century Cures Act
	The next question is about medication prescribed by a doctor or other health	includes expanding professional to help reduce or stop your use of alcohol .	the use of MAT to combat the opioid
	Some examples of these medications include:	crisis. By including
	Acamprosate, also known as Campral	these questions
	Disulfiram, also known as Antabuse,	estimates may be
	Naltrexone pills, also known as ReVia or Trexan	generated of MAT use
	Injectable naltrexone, also known as Vivitrol	among those with opioid use disorder in (Past 12 month) use of medication to help reduce or stop use of alcohol If yes, which of the following medications did you use:	the general population.
	Acamprosate, also known as Campral
	Disulfiram, also known as Antabuse
	 Naltrexone pills, also known as ReVia or Trexan
	 Injectable naltrexone, also known as Vivitrol
	 Some other medication to help reduce or stop
	If a respondent reports use of heroin and/ or prescription pain relievers, they receive the following question on medication-assisted treatment:
	Introduction
	The next question is about medication-assisted treatment prescribed by a doctor or other health professional to help reduce or stop your use of [heroin/ prescription pain relievers]. It is different from medications given to stop a drug overdose.
	Some examples of medication-assisted treatment include:
	Some examples of medication-assisted treatment include: Buprenorphine or buprenorphine-naloxone pills or film taken by mouth, also known as Suboxone, Zubsolv, Bunavail, or Subutex Injectable buprenorphine, also known as Sublocade
	Buprenorphine implant placed under the skin, also known as Probuphine
	Methadone
	Naltrexone pills, also known as ReVia or Trexan	