As part of applying for a citizenship and Issuance of a certificate, you will need to provide evidence to support your application. These documents help us evaluate your application and verify your answers.

You are required to provide several documents as part of submitting your application. You may also need to provide additional evidence, depending on how you answered some questions.

Do not send original documents to USCIS in the mail. Provide legible copies of your documents unless USCIS later requests original documents.

Child's birth certificate

Upload a copy or image of the child's birth certificate or record that was issued and certified by a civil authority in their country of birth.

Proof of U.S. citizenship of qualifying parent or grandparent

Upload a copy or image of the U.S. citizen parent's proof of U.S. citizenship. This pertains to grandparents if the parent does not meet the requirement. This may include:

- Birth certificate showing birth in the United States
- Certificate of Naturalization (N-550)
- Certificate of Citizenship (N-560)
- Report of Birth Abroad of United States Citizen (FS-240)
- Valid unexpired U.S. passport

Child's proof of lawful admission and maintenance of lawful status

Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, is required, if available, at the time of interview for all children seeking citizenship under INA section 322, except for eligible children of members of the U.S. Armed Forces.

If U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) or USCIS issued Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record to the child, provide Form I-94 number and the date that the child's authorized period of stay expires or expired (as shown on Form I-94). The Form I-94 number also is known as the Departure Number on some versions of Form I-94. If the child does not have an I-94 number, one of the following scenarios may apply:

- 1. If CBP or USCIS issued Form I-94 to the child, but it is now lost or destroyed, he or she may apply for a replacement by filing Form I-102, Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Document.*
- 2. If CBP or USCIS did not issue Form I-94 to the child and he or she believes that Form I-94 should have been issued, the person filing this form may contact the agency that should have issued it*

Child's passport and travel document numbers

If you used a passport or travel document to travel to the United States, enter either the passport or travel document information in the appropriate space on the application, even if the passport or travel document currently expired. CBP is exploring automation Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, in order to collect arrival/departure information electronically, streamlining arrival and inspection for travelers. If this occurs, CBP may scan a traveler's electronic passport (or, for travelers who do not have a passport, some other similar "travel document") instead of issuing Form I-94. In these instances, the person filing this form must provide passport or travel document numbers - even if they have expired - instead of a Form I-94 number when filing Form N-600K.

U.S. citizen parent's marriage certificates

Upload a copy or image of your U.S. citizen parent's marriage certificate that was issued and certified by a civil authority in the state or country of marriage. If your U.S. citizen parent has been married more than once, upload a copy or image of all of their marriage certificates.
