

Public Reporting burden of this collection of information is estimated at 2 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to CDC/ATSDR Reports Clearance Officer, 1600 Clifton Road NW, MS D-74, Atlanta, GA 30333; Attn: PRA (0920-1050).

Thank you again for agreeing to help us evaluate VetoViolence's tools!

We greatly appreciate your feedback. We anticipate using the comments and feedback provided by users like you to improve our tools and better meet our partners' needs.

First, we would like to learn a little more about you.

* 1. What is your violence prevention focus area?

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| <input type="radio"/> Child abuse and neglect | <input type="radio"/> Suicide |
| <input type="radio"/> Intimate partner violence | <input type="radio"/> Youth violence |
| <input type="radio"/> Sexual violence | <input type="radio"/> Multiple types |

Other (please specify)

* 2. How many years of experience do you have in the violence prevention field?

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="radio"/> Less than 1 year | <input type="radio"/> 10 years or more |
| <input type="radio"/> 1 to 4 years | <input type="radio"/> Not in the field of violence prevention |
| <input type="radio"/> 5 to 9 years | |

* 3. Does your organization currently receive CDC funding for violence prevention work?

- Yes
 No

You have been assigned to review the website Violence Prevention in Practice. This resource was developed to help partners to plan, implement and evaluate violence prevention strategies in their communities and states.

* 4. Have you used the Violence Prevention in Practice website before today?

- Yes
 No

* 5. If you answered no to the previous question, were you aware the Violence Prevention in Practice website existed before today?

Yes

No

* 6. Where did you first hear about the Violence Prevention in Practice website?

- CDC recipient meetings
- Webinar by CDC
- My Project Officer at CDC
- Email
- Online ad
- Website mention
- Search engine results
- Curricula or syllabus
- Exploring the site

Other (please specify)

* 7. Are you taking this survey and reviewing the Violence Prevention in Practice website using your phone, tablet or a computer?

- Phone
- Tablet
- Computer

Starting at the Violence Prevention in Practice home page:

Suppose you are interested in getting guidance to implement a youth violence prevention program in your community. Navigate within Violence Prevention in Practice to find the resources that you would need to implement such a program in your community.

* 8. What did you do to find implementation resources for a youth violence prevention program?

- Clicked on "Resources" hexagon, then selected "Implementation" bar on "Resources" page
- Clicked on "Implementation" hexagon and found resources on "Implementation" page
- Could not find any implementation resources

Other (please specify)

* 9. Which resources did you find that you think would be helpful to implement a youth violence prevention program? (Select all that apply.)

- Downloadable implementation tools, such as worksheets and checklists, that provide guidance on how to implement programs (for example, Worksheet 1: Estimating Essential Elements of Programs).
- Links to other resources.
- None of the above - I didn't find any of the resources helpful.
- Downloadable implementation tip sheets that explain more about specific implementation topics (for example, Implementation Factors Tip Sheet).
- Stories about how other organizations have successfully implemented youth violence prevention programs.

Other (please specify)

* 10. Which resources do you think would NOT be helpful in your work? (Select all that apply.)

- Downloadable implementation tools, such as worksheets and checklists, that provide guidance on how to implement programs (for example, Worksheet 1: Estimating Essential Elements of Programs).
- Links to other resources.
- Written content in the Violence Prevention in Practice website that explains different aspects of implementation.
- Downloadable implementation tip sheets that explain more about specific implementation topics (for example, Implementation Factors Tip Sheet).
- None of the above - all of the resources would be helpful to my work.
- Stories about how other organizations have successfully implemented youth violence prevention programs.

Other (please specify)

* 11. Why would the resource(s) you selected not be useful? (Check all that apply.)

Can get information from other places

Not applicable to my work

Not easy to understand

Not easy to use

Other (please specify)

Now that you are more familiar with the Violence Prevention in Practice site, go to the home page and select the implementation stage or resource type that is most relevant to your work at this moment.

(For example, you can go to the "Planning" webpage or the "Stories" webpage or another webpage altogether, depending on what you are most interested.)

* 12. What page did you go to?

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| <input type="radio"/> Stories | <input type="radio"/> Adaptation |
| <input type="radio"/> Resources | <input type="radio"/> Evaluation |
| <input type="radio"/> Approach Search | <input type="radio"/> Implementation |
| <input type="radio"/> Planning | <input type="radio"/> Policy Efforts |
| <input type="radio"/> Partnerships | <input type="radio"/> Strategies and Approaches |

* 13. What about the page you chose is MOST useful to you? (Check all that apply.)

- Written information
- Links to other websites
- Links to other webpages on Violence Prevention in Practice (e.g. link to Approach Search)
- Links to tools (worksheets, tip sheets, etc.)
- Other (please specify)

* 14. Why? (Please explain)

* 15. What about the page you chose is LEAST useful for you? (Check all that apply.)

- Written information
- Links to other websites
- Links to other webpages on Violence Prevention in Practice (e.g. link to Approach Search)
- Links to tools (worksheets, tip sheets, etc.)

Other (please specify)

* 16. Why? (Please explain)

Starting at the Violence Prevention in Practice home page: Find an example of how another organization has used policy to address violence in their state or communities.

* 17. How did you find that example?

- Clicked on "Stories" hexagon, then "Policy" bar
- Clicked on "Policy Efforts" hexagon and found story within "Policy Efforts" page
- Could not find an example of another organization using policy to address violence
- Other (please specify)

Please think about the Violence Prevention in Practice website as a whole when you are responding to the next questions.

* 18. Would you use the Violence Prevention in Practice website in your work?

If yes, please tell us how:

If no, please tell us why not:

* 19. The written content is well-organized.

Strongly disagree Disagree Neutral or don't know Agree Strongly agree

* 20. The written content is easy to understand.

Strongly disagree Disagree Neutral or don't know Agree Strongly agree

* 21. I can easily find what I need on the Violence Prevention in Practice website.

Strongly disagree Disagree Neutral or don't know Agree Strongly agree

* 22. The look and feel of the Violence Prevention in Practice website is pleasing.

Strongly disagree Disagree Neutral or don't know Agree Strongly agree

* 23. What were your biggest challenges when using the Violence Prevention in Practice website? (Check all that apply.)

The written content is difficult to read.

The content is written in a boring way.

I didn't understand where to find the information or resources I needed.

I didn't understand how to use the hexagons (for example "Planning" or "Approaches") to navigate the site.

Other (please specify)

24. What other feedback do you have for us on how to make the Violence Prevention in Practice website easier to use and more useful for partners like you?

Thank you for your participation and feedback. We really appreciate that you took time out of your day to help us understand the needs of users of the Violence Prevention in Practice website and to help us identify ways to improve this resource for others.

