NIAID ClinRegs Focus Group Script

Introduction (10 minutes)

Introduce leaders of the focus group and roles of each in supporting the meeting. Briefly describe that ClinRegs is an online database of country-specific clinical research regulatory information designed to assist in planning and implementing international clinical research.

[Don't provide too much detail here; it may limit their thinking too much.]

We are conducting this focus group to better understand your experiences with ClinRegs. This focus group involves having you answer a few questions to learn about how ClinRegs has impacted your work. Specifically, we want to learn more about what you thought was particularly useful/helpful and how we can make it more relevant to the work you do. There are no wrong answers—we want your honesty and we expect differences in opinion. And there are no bad questions, so please feel free to speak up. The only limitation is to help us stay on time, so we can cover all our questions.

Your participation with the focus group is voluntary and confidential. Any input gathered will not be attributed to you individually, but will be combined with others for a fuller picture of the issues. We are recording the session to be sure our notes are accurate, but again, we will not connect any names to any comments. Please let me know if there are any concerns about this process.

Let's do brief introductions—please tell us your name, organization, and what you do.

We will use your input to make decisions about revising the website, including what revisions need to be made to content and format, as well as about what new topics need to be developed, to better support you in your work.
