How to Apply to the Attorney General's Honors Program or Summer Law Intern Program

This is a unified application for two separate hiring Programs.

The application should be completed in the order listed on the menu to the right of this screen.

- Based on your answers on the Program Eligibility Questions screen, you will be routed to the correct program.
- The Components & Offices of Interest screen will list the Program to which you were routed. If incorrect, review the information and dates you entered on the Program Eligibility Questions screen for accuracy. If the information on this screen is correct, review the eligibility requirements to determine whether you qualify.

You must select Save and Continue at the bottom of each screen to preserve your entries.

Check the Community message board for informational updates from DOJ and to submit questions to the Office of Attorney Recruitment and Management. These communications are public; if you have personal questions, email OARM at AskOARM@usdoj.gov.

Avue's Privacy Policy governs the collection and use of personally identifiable information ("personal information") by Avue Technologies ("Avue"). It can be accessed via a link on the login screen and on the footer of every screen on the application.

Providing the information requested by DOJ on this application is voluntary; however, failure to provide it may result in a determination of ineligibility or disqualification from consideration.

Provision of demographic information is completely voluntary; there are no consequences associated with non- or partial response to those questions.

Corrections, Updates, and Withdrawals

To make changes prior to certifying and submitting your application, open the relevant screen, make the change, then select Save and Continue.

To make a correction to or update a submitted application prior to the deadline, log on to your account and select the Withdraw and Update link under Application Status. Make the desired change, then select Save and Continue. You must recertify and resubmit your application to DOJ for consideration. Post-deadline, you may only update your contact information and references.

To withdraw a submitted application from consideration (pre- or post-submission) or to transfer your application from the Attorney General's Honors Program to the Summer Law Intern Program (based on accepting a judicial clerkship or legal fellowship), log on to your account and follow the appropriate link under Application Status.

Incomplete Applications

Ensure you follow instructions and fully complete the application prior to submission, including the Education and Essay portions. ## Essays

Answer the two questions below. To ensure answers display properly, type directly into the space provided and avoid using bullets (e.g., do not "cut and paste").

Reviewing officials carefully consider your responses when selecting candidates. Because many reviewers consider responses as preliminary writing samples, your essays should reflect your ability to write clearly and concisely, and provide conclusions that flow from a logical thought process, with attention to style, spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

Applicants should provide thoughtful answers that demonstrate their interest, intellect, skill set, commitment, motivation, and/or experience relevant to each of the components they designated.

We suggest you address why you are interested in working for each component, identify the qualities that make you a good candidate, and describe how your background, skills, education, experience, or other factors will contribute both to your success and to the component's mission.

* 1. Why do you want to work for the Department of Justice and what attracts you to each of the components you selected (whether participating formally or informally)? (4000 characters maximum)

Spell Check

* 2. If you could tell the selecting official one thing about yourself, what would it be? (2000 characters maximum)

Explanation of How the Department of Justice Uses Disability, Gender, Gender Identity, Ethnicity, and Race Identification Data

Providing Demographic Information

The U.S. Department of Justice is an Equal Opportunity/Reasonable Accommodation Employer. Except where otherwise provided by law, there will be no discrimination because of color, race, religion, national origin, political affiliation, marital status, disability (physical or mental), age, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, genetic information, status as a parent, membership or non-membership in an employee organization, on the basis of personal favoritism, or any non merit factor.

Our agency works diligently to recruit applicants using practices that are free from discrimination and provide equal employment opportunities. The information you choose to provide helps ensure that our agency is recruiting from the entire U.S. citizen workforce. Your furnishing the requested information is voluntary. Demographic information provided by you is not shared with selecting officials or Department of Justice reviewers (however, please note your option to consent to disclosure of disability information, below). Your decision not to provide the information will not affect your consideration for employment.

Disability Information Privacy Act Statement

Collection of the requested information is authorized by the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-112). The information you furnish will be used for the purpose of producing statistical reports to show agency progress in hiring, placement, and advancement of disabled individuals and to locate individuals for voluntary participation in surveys. The reports will be used to inform agency top management, the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), Congress, and the public of the status of programs for employment of persons with disabilities. All such reports will be in the form of aggregate totals and will not identify you in any way as an individual unless you specifically consent to disclosure of the fact that you identified yourself as an individual with a targeted disability, along with your name, contact information, and other information provided in this application to DOJ officials with the need to know for hiring purposes. Even if you consent to disclosure of the information listed above, disability disclosures will not be reflected on your application, nor will your status be disclosed as part of the standard review and selection process.

Your furnishing this information is voluntary. Your failure to do so will have no effect on you or your Federal employment.

Gender, Ethnicity, and Race Identification Privacy Act Statement

You are requested to furnish this information under the authority of 42 U.S.C. 2000e-16, which requires that Federal employment practices be free from discrimination and provide equal employment opportunities for all. Standards for Maintaining, Collecting, and Presenting Federal Data on Race and Ethnicity, are published in the Federal Register, October 30, 1997, as amended, December, 2002.

This information is used as necessary to plan for equal employment opportunity throughout the Federal government. It is also used in the production of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained, or for related workforce studies. The records and studies may be used to inform agency top management, the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), Congress, and the public of the status of hiring programs. All such reports will be in the form of aggregate totals and will not identify you in any way as an individual.

Your furnishing this information is voluntary. Your failure to do so will have no effect on you or your Federal employment.

Explanation of How Ethnicity and Race Identification Will Be Reported

All employees who identify as Hispanic or Latino will continue to be reported in that category only - regardless of the race or multiple races they designated.

All employees who identify themselves as Non-Hispanic and choose more than one race will be reported only in the new category "Two or more Races" they will not be reported in any of the race categories they identified.

Gender Identity Privacy Act Statement

The Department is committed to helping make the legal profession accessible to all individuals on a non-discriminatory basis. The information you furnish may be used for the purpose of producing statistical reports to show agency progress in hiring and placement, and to locate individuals for voluntary participation in surveys. The reports may be used to inform agency top management, the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), Congress, and the public of the status of hiring programs. All such reports will be in the form of aggregate totals and will not identify you in any way as an individual.

Your furnishing this information is voluntary. Your failure to do so will have no effect on you or your Federal employment.

Recommendations:

1. SLIP applicants seeking to intern prior to law school graduation should review the Law School Achievement screen for accuracy.
2. If you applied to the SLIP and listed the Office of the Solicitor General or Office of Legal Counsel, be sure you have accepted a judicial clerkship and entered the relevant information.

2. We recommend you ensure your law school TRANSCRIPT is attached before submitting your application.
3. We recommend you review the dates relating to all law degrees and post-law school activities (if any) to ensure they are accurate before submitting your application.

I understand that I cannot change, update, or correct my application once it is submitted, other than contact information.

* Honors Program Applicants: I understand that if I accept a judicial clerkship after submitting my application, and wish to be considered for a summer internship between law school graduation and the start of my clerkship, I must return to the Applicant Intake screen, log in and transfer to the Summer Law Intern Program using the link on the bottom right of the "Application Status" screen. Transferring applicants will be prompted to enter the clerkship information and their SLIP employment preferences.

* I understand that I may not be simultaneously considered for both the Attorney General's Honors Program and the Summer Law Intern Program.

* I am ready to certify and submit my application.

Law school career services offices frequently request information about the hiring status of their students and alumni, specifically, which students applied to our programs, were selected for an interview (Honors Program) or for further consideration (Summer Law Intern Program), or accepted an offer of employment.

I consent to the disclosure of this information to my law school. (Voluntary)

Law School Achievement

Check the box that most accurately describes your grade in your first-year legal writing course

- An "A" or its equivalent
 Passing grade other than a minimally passing grade. (click popup for definition of minimally passing grade)
 Minimally passing grade. (click popup for definition of minimally passing grade)
 Non-passing grade

Were you selected as a legal writing instructor or legal writing teaching assistant? (Include on "Employment" screen)

- Yes
 No

Did you receive an award for legal writing (including but not limited to "best brief" in first-year moot court)?

- Yes
 No

Were you selected for a Law Review or Law Journal on the basis of a writing competition? (Applicants selected for Law Review/Journal solely based on grades may indicate by answering the next question below.) This particular question addresses "writing on" to Law Review/Journal, including circumstances where selection is based on both a writing requirement and grades.

- Yes
 No

Were you selected for a Law Review or Law Journal solely on the basis of your grades?

- Yes
 No

Does your law school transcript list any failing or non-passing/no-credit law school grades in a class that had grades or was Pass/Fail?

- Yes, my transcript includes failing, non-passing, or no-credit grades
 No

Listed below are seven options reflecting law school grading systems. Please review all seven before answering to ensure you select the most appropriate option.

If you listed a specific class rank by percentile on the Legal Education screen, select 'Not Applicable' from the menu below.

If you did not list a specific class rank by percentile on the Legal Education screen (e.g., you attend a law school that does not rank in percentiles or your law school partially ranks by percentile but you are not a ranked student), then you must choose the option that most accurately describes your law school's grading system and select the button that reflects your grade range/academic performance in law school.

You must select a measurable level of academic performance in one of the seven grading system options unless you previously entered a specific class rank by percentile. If you select an incorrect option from among the seven types of grading systems listed below, simply select another option to undo your previous selection. Failure to list either class rank by percentile (on the Legal Education screen) or a measurable level of academic achievement (from the menu selections below) will constitute an incomplete application and result in disqualification.

From the options below, select the one that most accurately describes your law school's grading system, and then select the button that reflects your level of academic achievement in law school:

- My law school grades on an expanded 4.0 scale (i.e., 4.3 = A+ or highest grade)

My cumulative GPA is:

- 3.77 or higher and all my grades meet the requirements to pass.
 3.4 or higher and all my grades meet the requirements to pass.
 Below 3.4 or not all my grades meet the requirements to pass.
