SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

Congress makes the following findings:

(1) 2,100,146 persons were incarcerated in the United States at the end of 2001: 1,324,465 in Federal and State prisons and 631,240 in county and local jails. In 1999, there were more than 10,000,000 separate admissions to and discharges from prisons and jails.

(2) Insufficient research has been conducted and insufficient data reported on the extent of prison rape. However, experts have conservatively estimated that at least 13 percent of the inmates in the United States have been sexually assaulted in prison. Many inmates have suffered repeated assaults. Under this estimate, nearly 200,000 inmates now incarcerated have been or will be the victims of prison rape. The total number of inmates who have been sexually assaulted in the past 20 years likely exceeds 1,000,000.

(3) Inmates with mental illness are at increased risk of sexual victimization. America's jails and prisons house more mentally ill individuals than all of the Nation's psychiatric hospitals combined. As many as 16 percent of inmates in State prisons and jails, and 7 percent of Federal inmates, suffer from mental illness.

(4) Young first-time offenders are at increased risk of sexual victimization. Juveniles are 5 times more likely to be sexually assaulted in adult rather than juvenile facilities -often within the first 48 hours of incarceration.

(5) Most prison staff are not adequately trained or prepared to prevent, report, or treat inmate sexual assaults.

(6) Prison rape often goes unreported and inmate victims often receive inadequate treatment for the severe physical and psychological effects of sexual assault -if they receive treatment at all.

(7) HIV and AIDS are major public health problems within America's correctional facilities. In 2000, 25,088 inmates in Federal and State prisons were known to be infected with HIV/AIDS. In 2000, HIV/AIDS accounted for more than 6 percent of all deaths in Federal and State prisons. Infection rates for other sexually transmitted diseases, tuberculosis, and hepatitis Band C are also far greater for prisoners than for the American population as a whole. Prison rape undermines the public health by contributing to the spread of these diseases, and often giving a potential death sentence to its victims.

(8) Prison rape endangers the public safety by making brutalized inmates more likely to commit crimes when they are released -as 600,000 inmates are each year.

(9) The frequently interracial character of prison sexual assaults significantly exacerbates interracial tensions, both within prison and, upon release of perpetrators and victims from prison, in the community at large.

(10) Prison rape increases the level of homicides and other violence against inmates and staff, and the risk of insurrections and riots.

(11) Victims of prison rape suffer severe physical and psychological effects that hinder their ability to integrate into the community and maintain stable employment upon their release from prison. They are thus more likely to become home less and/or require government assistance.

(12) Members of the public and government officials are largely unaware of the epidemic character of prison rape and the day-to-day horror experienced by victimized inmates.

(13) The high incidence of sexual assault within prisons involves actual and potential violations of the United States Constitution. In Farmer v. Brennan, 511 U.S. 825 (1994), the Supreme Court ruled that deliberate indifference to the substantial risk of sexual assault violates prisoner's rights under the Cruel and Unusual Punishments Clause of the Eighth Amendment. The Eighth Amendment rights of State and local prisoners are protected through the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. Pursuant to the power of Congress under Section Five of the Fourteenth Amendment, Congress may take action to enforce those rights in States where officials have demonstrated such indifference. States that do not take basic steps to abate prison rape by adopting standards that do not generate significant additional expenditures demonstrate such indifference. Therefore, such States are not entitled to the same level of Federal benefits as other States.

(14) The high incidence of prison rape undermines the effectiveness and efficiency of United States Government expenditures through grant programs such as those dealing with health care; mental health care; disease prevention; crime prevention, investigation, and prosecution; prison construction, maintenance, and operation; race relations; poverty; unemployment and homelessness. The effectiveness and efficiency of these federally funded grant programs are compromised by the failure of State officials to adopt policies and procedures that reduce the incidence of prison rape in that the high incidence of prison rape: -

(A) increases the costs incurred by Federal, State, and local jurisdictions to administer their prison systems;

(B) increases the levels of violence, directed at inmates and at staff, within prisons;

(C) increases health care expenditures, both inside and outside of prison systems, and reduces the effectiveness of disease prevention programs by substantially increasing the incidence and spread of HIV, AIDS, tuberculosis, hepatitis Band C, and other diseases;

(D) increases mental health care expenditures, both inside and outside of prison systems, by substantially increasing the rate of post-traumatic stress disorder, depression, suicide, and the exacerbation of existing mental illnesses among current and former inmates;

(E) increases the risks of recidivism, civil strife, and violent crime by individuals who have been brutalized by prison rape; and

(F) increases the level of interracial tensions and strife within prisons and, upon release of perpetrators and victims, in the community at large.

(15) The high incidence of prison rape has a significant effect on interstate commerce because it increases substantially -

(A) the costs incurred by Federal, State, and local jurisdictions to administer their prison systems;

(B) the incidence and spread of HIV, AIDS, tuberculosis, hepatitis Band C, and other diseases, contributing to increased health and medical expenditures throughout the Nation;

(C) the rate of post-traumatic stress disorder, depression, suicide, and the exacerbation of existing mental illnesses among current and former inmates, contributing to increased health and medical expenditures throughout the Nation; and

(D) the risk of recidivism, civil strife, and violent crime by individuals who have been brutalized by prison rape.

SEC. 3. PURPOSES.

The purposes of this Act are to -

(1) establish a zero-tolerance standard for the incidence of prison rape in prisons in the United States;

(2) make the prevention of prison rape a top priority in each prison system;

(3) develop and implement national standards for the detection, prevention, reduction, and punishment of prison rape; (4) increase the available data and information on the incidence of prison rape, consequently improving the management and administration of correctional facilities;

(5) standardize the definitions used for collecting data on the incidence of prison rape;

(6) increase the accountability of prison officials who fail to detect, prevent, reduce, and punish prison rape;

(7) protect the Eighth Amendment rights of Federal, State, and local prisoners;

(8) increase the efficiency and effectiveness of Federal expenditures through grant programs such as those dealing with health care; mental health care; disease prevention; crime prevention, investigation, and prosecution; prison construction, maintenance, and operation; race relations; poverty; unemployment; and homelessness; and .

(9) reduce the costs that prison rape imposes on interstate commerce.

SEC. 4. NATIONAL PRISON RAPE STATISTICS, DATA AND RESEARCH. 42 USC 15603. (a)

ANNUAL COMPREHENSIVE STATISTICAL REVIEW.

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Bureau of Justice Statistics of the Department of Justice (in this section referred to as the "Bureau") shall carry out, for each calendar year, a comprehensive statistical review and analysis of the incidence and effects of prison rape. (A) both victims and perpetrators of prison rape; and (B) prisons and prison systems with a high incidence of prison rape ...

(2) CONSIDERATIONS . . .—In carrying out paragraph (1), the Bureau shall consider —

(A) how rape should be defined for the purposes of the statistical review and analysis; .

(B) how the Bureau should collect information about staff-on-inmate sexual assault;

(C) how the Bureau should collect information beyond inmate self-reports of prison rape;

(D) how the Bureau should adjust the data in order to account for differences among prisons as required by subsection (c)(3);

(E) the categorization of prisons as required by subsection (c)(4); and

(F) whether a preliminary study of prison rape should be conducted to inform the methodology of the comprehensive statistical review.

The selection shall include at least one prison from each State. The selection of facilities for sampling shall be made at the latest practicable date prior to conducting the surveys and shall not be disclosed to any facility or prison system official prior to the time period studied in the survey. Selection of a facility for sampling during any year shall not preclude its selection for sampling in any subsequent year.

The Panel shall hold a separate hearing regarding the three Federal or State prisons with the highest incidence of prison rape. The purpose of these hearings shall be to collect evidence to aid in the identification of common characteristics of both victims and perpetrators of prison rape, and the identification of common characteristics of prisons and prison systems with a high incidence of prison rape, and the identification of common characteristics of prisons and prison systems that appear to have been successful in deterring prison rape.

(B) TESTIMONY AT HEARINGS.-

(i) PUBLIC OFFICIALS.-In carrying out the hearings required under subparagraph (A), the Panel shall request the public testimony of Federal, State, and local officials (and organizations that represent such officials), including the warden or director of each prison, who bears responsibility for the prevention, detection, and punishment of prison rape at each entity, and the head of the prison system encompassing such prison.

Dear Secretary Zeigler:

I am writing to ask for your assistance with the fourth National Inmate Survey (NIS-4). The Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) is mandated by the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA; P.L. 108-79) to carry out a comprehensive statistical analysis and report on the prevalence and nature of sexual victimization within adult correctional facilities. BJS is required to sample “not less than 10 percent” of correctional facilities nationwide and to submit a report that ranks facilities based on the prevalence of sexual victimization. Findings from the most recent data collection were published by BJS in Sexual Victimization in Prisons and Jails Reported by Inmates, 2011-12, which was released in June 2013. The report is available online at <https://www.bjs.gov/content/pub/pdf/svpjri1112.pdf>. Data collection for NIS-4 is schedule to start in early 2020. BJS has again entered into a cooperative agreement with RTI International to conduct the data collection activities for the NIS.

Since the last NIS, we have received helpful recommendations from state correctional administrators, advocates, and other interested stakeholders. These recommendations were invaluable as we enhanced the survey to address important issues identified in past collections. We are now interested in pilot testing the NIS-4 instrument with inmates in several prisons, and we are hoping to do some of the pilot testing in one or two of your prisons. We selected your Department of Corrections because we have worked so well with your state on previous rounds of the NIS.

A RTI representative (Monica Sheppard) will contact you in early July. She will provide details about our plans for pilot testing and answer any questions you may have. If you would like for Ms. Sheppard to work with a liaison from your office, please let us know whom she should contact. We understand the potential burden of even conducting a small pilot test in your prisons, but we will work diligently to minimize its impact on facility operations.

If you have any questions in the meantime, please feel free to contact me at (202) 598-7610, or Jessica.Stroop@usdoj.gov. Rachel Caspar, the Principal Investigator from RTI, is also available to address questions and comments at (919) 541-6376, Caspar@rti.org.

National Inmate Survey

Pilot Study

Consent to Participate in Research

Introduction

The National Inmate Survey Pilot Study is a research study being done by the Bureau of Justice Statistics and RTI International. You are one of the 25 inmates at this facility who have been randomly selected to participate. Inmates will be interviewed at 4 facilities across the United States. The purpose of this research study is to try out the procedures that will be used to conduct a much larger study later this year. The larger study will include approximately 40,000 inmates from 168 facilities and data from that study will be used to estimate the number of inmates who are sexually assaulted in prisons each year. Your participation in this study is voluntary.

Description of the Study

This interview will take about 35 minutes. To start, I will ask you some questions about your background and education and enter them into the computer. Next, I will show you how to use the computer and you can complete the rest of the survey on your own. You will be able to see the questions on the computer screen and listen to them through headphones. You will enter your answers directly into the computer by touching the screen. I will be nearby in case you have questions but I won't be able to see your answers.

You will be randomly assigned to receive either detailed questions about your own experiences with sex and sexual assault in this facility (such as the types of sexual acts and where they occurred) or questions about your childhood and your experiences in this facility. In addition, you will be asked about your criminal history and military service. You will never be asked to identify anyone by name. You are the only one who will know which questions you are asked. Even I won't know unless you discuss the questions with me. To thank you for participating in the study, we will provide you with [a snack that you must eat before you leave the interview location/ a stamped envelope].

Possible Risks or Discomforts

Some of the questions in this interview are personal and they could make you feel uncomfortable or upset. You can skip any questions you do not want to answer and you can stop the interview at any time. Please tell me if you want to stop or take a break during the interview. If you find the questions upsetting for any reason, I can also provide you with instructions for contacting a mental health counselor employed by this facility or retained by this study.

Benefits

You will not receive any direct benefits for participating in this study. However, the results of this study will be used to improve the procedures used in the larger study later this year. The larger study may help improve the well-being of inmates in correctional facilities across the United States. If you choose not to participate you will not lose any benefits or services that you now receive or might receive in the future. Whether you participate or not will not affect your legal status or any decisions regarding your release from this facility in any way.

Confidentiality

Your name will never be connected with the information you provide in this interview. We will treat everything you say as private and confidential and we will not share any information you provide with anyone at this facility or anyone on the outside who is not working on the study. There is, however, an exception to our promise of confidentiality. If you tell me that you intend to seriously harm yourself or a specific person, I may need to inform correctional staff here or authorities outside the facility who are responsible for protecting prison inmates.

Further Questions

You may keep a copy of this form. If you have any questions about the project, you may write to the National Inmate Survey (Project 0216099) at RTI International, P.O. Box 12194, Research Triangle Park, NC 27709-2194. If you have questions about your rights as a project participant, you can write to RTI's Office of Research Protection at the same address.

Interviewer Script to be Read After ACASI Consent Form

Instructions for Interviewer: You must read the following script out loud to the inmate and confirm that he/she understands the information before concluding the informed consent process.

I want to go over the main points covered in this form to make sure everything is clear:

- This interview is voluntary. You can say yes or no. It is totally up to you. Nothing about your legal situation, such as when you will be released or what treatment you might receive, will be changed by whether or not you participate in the interview.
- If you start the interview and then want to quit, that's okay.
- If you want to skip any questions, that's okay also.

Do you understand?

IF THE INMATE ANSWERS, "NO," ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS THE INMATE HAS AND THEN RETURN TO THE CONSENT FORM AND RE-READ THE TEXT IN THE SECTIONS LABELED, "POSSIBLE RISKS OR DISCOMFORTS" AND "BENEFITS". POINT TO THE TEXT ON THE INMATE'S COPY OF THE CONSENT FORM.

It is possible that some of the questions you answer using the computer may make you feel nervous or upset. If that happens and you want to take a break or you want to talk to someone about how the questions made you feel, you can tell me you want to take a break or want to speak with someone.

The form I just read aloud to you also talks about privacy. By private, we mean that the answers you enter into the computer, even those about being abused or harmed, will always be kept secret. No one will ever know your answers, not even me.

READ FOR 16 AND 17 YEAR OLDS ONLY:

However, if you tell me out loud that you are being abused at this facility I, or my supervisors, may need to report that information to the agency in this state that investigates abuse. Once we make a report, we have no control over what will be done with the information.

Do you understand that what you enter into the computer, even if it is about abuse will always be kept private?

IF THE INMATE ANSWERS 'NO', ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS THE INMATE HAS AND THEN RETURN TO THE CONSENT FORM AND RE-READ THE TEXT ENTITLED CONFIDENTIALITY AND POINT TO THIS TEXT ON THE INMATE'S COPY OF THE CONSENT FORM.

Do you understand that if you say something out loud about being abused, that information is not secret and may be reported to a state agency?

IF THE INMATE ANSWERS 'NO', ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS THE INMATE HAS AND THEN RETURN TO THE CONSENT FORM AND RE-READ THE TEXT ENTITLED CONFIDENTIALITY AND POINT TO THIS TEXT ON THE INMATE'S COPY OF THE CONSENT FORM.

So, please do not say anything out loud to me about being abused unless you want me to pass that information on to the agency in this state that investigates abuse. Do you have any questions?

If you think of any questions or comments about the survey later, you can write us at the address provided. If you would like to participate in the interview, please tell me now and we will begin.

The form I just read aloud to you also talks about privacy. By private, we mean that the answers you mark on the questionnaire, even those about being abused or harmed, will always be kept secret. No one will ever know your answers, not even me.

READ FOR 16 AND 17 YEAR OLDS ONLY:

However, if you tell me out loud that you are being abused at this facility I, or my supervisors, may need to report that information to the agency in this state that investigates abuse. Once we make a report, we have no control over what will be done with the information.

Do you understand that what you mark on the questionnaire, even if it is about abuse will always be kept private?

IF THE INMATE ANSWERS 'NO', ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS THE INMATE HAS AND THEN RETURN TO THE CONSENT FORM AND RE-READ THE TEXT ENTITLED CONFIDENTIALITY AND POINT TO THIS TEXT ON THE INMATE'S COPY OF THE CONSENT FORM.

Do you understand that if you say something out loud about being abused, that information is not secret and may be reported to a state agency?

IF THE INMATE ANSWERS 'NO', ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS THE INMATE HAS AND THEN RETURN TO THE CONSENT FORM AND RE-READ THE TEXT ENTITLED CONFIDENTIALITY AND POINT TO THIS TEXT ON THE INMATE'S COPY OF THE CONSENT FORM.

So, please do not say anything out loud to me about being abused unless you want me to pass that information on to the agency in this state that investigates abuse. Do you have any questions?

If you think of any questions or comments about the survey later, you can write us at the address provided. If you would like to participate in the interview, please tell me now and we will begin.

INMATE CAN KEEP A COPY OF THE CONSENT FORM IF HE/SHE WANTS ONE.
