Use of Form I-407 also ensures that an individual abandoning his or her LPR status is informed of the right to a hearing before an immigration judge and that the individual has knowingly, willingly, and affirmatively waived that right.
Page 1, Who May Use This Form?	[Page 1] Who May Use This Form? Form I-407 is used by lawful permanent resident aliens who are outside the United States or at a Port of Entry who want to abandon LPR status. Generally, a parent’s abandonment of LPR status can be imputed to any minor children who return abroad with the parent. If a parent, custodian, or guardian chooses to file a separate Form I-407 on behalf of a minor child, it will be necessary to show that the parent, custodian, or guardian had custody of the minor child.	[Page 1] Who May File Form I-407? Form I-407 is used by lawful permanent residents who are outside the United States or at a Port of Entry who want to abandon their LPR status. Form I-407 may also be used by individuals who were admitted into the United States as non-immigrants or paroled into the United States after abandoning a prior LPR status, and who now want to record that prior abandonment of LPR status. Generally, if a parent abandons LPR status, any minor children in that parent’s custody will also have abandoned their LPR status. If a parent, custodial

If the answer is not applicable, type or print "N/A." 	[Page 1] General Instructions How to Fill Out Form I-407 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Type or print legibly in black ink. 2. Answer all questions fully and accurately. If a question does not apply to you (for example, if you have never been married and the question asks, "Provide the name of your current spouse"), type or print "N/A" unless otherwise directed. If your answer to a question which requires a numeric response is zero or none (for example, "How many children do you have" or "How many times have you departed the United States"), type or print "None" unless otherwise directed. 3. Provide your Alien Registration Number (A-Number) on the top right corner of each page. Your A-Number is located on your Permanent Resident Card (formerly known as the Alien Registration Card). The A-Number on your card consists of a seven to nine digit number, depending on when your record was created. If the A-Number on your card has fewer than nine digits, place enough zeros before the first number to make a total of nine digits on Form I-407. For example, type or print number A1234567 as A001234567 or type or print number A12345678 as A012345678. 4. Your form must be properly completed, signed, and submitted. You must include all pages when you submit Form I-407.
