General Instructions

The executor of the decedent's estate must file Form 706-CE before the IRS can allow a credit for foreign death taxes claimed on Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return. See Instructions for Schedule P of the Form 706 for information on how to figure the credit for foreign death taxes.

The credit for foreign death taxes is allowable only if the decedent was a U.S. citizen or a U.S. resident (as defined in the Instructions for Form 706) at the time of death. The credit is not available if the executor elects to deduct these taxes from the value of the gross estate of a U.S. citizen or resident under the special rules of section 2053(d) and its regulations. For a decedent who, at death, was a U.S. resident but not a U.S. citizen, and who was a citizen or subject of a foreign country for which the President has issued a proclamation under section 2014(h), the credit is allowable only if the country of which the decedent was a citizen or subject at death allows a similar credit to decedents who, at death, are U.S. citizens resident in that country.

As explained in the Instructions to Schedule P of Form 706, the credit for foreign death taxes is authorized either by statute or by treaty. If a credit is authorized by a treaty, whichever of the following is the most beneficial to the estate is allowed:

- The credit figured under the treaty;
- The credit figured under the statute; or,
- The credit figured under the treaty plus the credit figured under the statute for death taxes paid to each political subdivision or possession of the treaty country that are not directly or indirectly creditable under the treaty.

Prepare three copies of Form 706-CE for each foreign country's death tax for which you are claiming credit. Send the original form and one copy to the foreign government to whom you paid the tax. Ask that office to certify the form and send it to the Internal Revenue Service Center listed below. Keep the third copy for your records.

If the foreign government refuses to certify Form 706-CE, the executor must file it directly with the Internal Revenue Service Center listed in the Where to file section of these instructions. Complete the entire form, except the certification. Attach a statement under penalties of perjury to explain why the foreign government did not certify it. In addition, attach a copy of the foreign death tax return and a copy of the receipt or cancelled check for the payment of the foreign death tax.

If you or any other person receives a refund of any of the foreign death tax for which you are claiming this credit, you or the person receiving the refund must notify the Internal Revenue Service Center listed in the Where to file section of these instructions within 30 days of receiving any refund. Section 20.2016-1 of the Estate Tax Regulations describes what information to include in this notice. The persons who received the refund must pay any additional federal estate tax due.
