Data collection set-up slide (to appear before each of the poll questions)

We have some other information we'd like to collect, but before we add questions to our data collections we want to get a sense of how easy it will be for your state to provide this information. In the coming slides, we will be asking some questions to help us understand that better. Your response is voluntary, but we would like as much information as possible. Your responses won't be shared with others.

Federal Revenues on F-33 (July 29, 2020)

(Verbal Instructions) Please select the response that best describes your state's ability to collect and report the following proposed additions to "Section C – Revenue from Federal Sources through the State Government" of the F-33.

1. Student Support and Academic Enrichment Grants (subgrants from States only) (ESEA IV-A-1, section 4105)
  - We can report in FY 20 with little additional burden.
  - We can report in FY 20 with some additional burden.
  - We can report in FY 21 with some additional burden.
  - This item would add significant burden for my state.
  - I am uncertain; further research is required.

2. 21st century community learning centers (subgrants from States only—excludes awards under national activities) (ESEA IV-B)
  - We can report in FY 20 with little additional burden.
  - We can report in FY 20 with some additional burden.
  - We can report in FY 21 with some additional burden.
  - This item would add significant burden for my state.
  - I am uncertain; further research is required.

3. Rural education - Rural and Low-Income School program (RLIS) (ESEA V-B-2, section 5221)
  - We can report in FY 20 with little additional burden.
  - We can report in FY 20 with some additional burden.
  - We can report in FY 21 with some additional burden.
  - This item would add significant burden for my state.
  - I am uncertain; further research is required.

(Verbal Instructions) Please select the response that best describes your state’s ability to collect and report the following proposed addition to “Section D – Revenue from Federal Sources Directly” of the F-33.

4. Rural education - Small, Rural School Achievement program (SRSA) (ESEA V-B-1, section 5211)

- We can report in FY 20 with little additional burden.
- We can report in FY 20 with some additional burden.
- We can report in FY 21 with some additional burden.
- This item would add significant burden for my state.
- I am uncertain; further research is required.

Proposed New Special Education Items on F-33 (July 30, 2020)

(Verbal Instructions) In an effort to ensure consistent and accurate data products, we will now ask two poll questions to help us gauge your state’s ability to collect and report disaggregated data for special education to the School District Finance (F-33) Survey. The proposed data items are detailed in the “Special Education Variables for F-33” handout. We will use your responses in determining the future addition of these items to the F-33 survey.

(Preceding slide) Please answer the following two poll questions as they relate to your state’s ability to collect and report on the following data items:

- Current expenditures for special education
- Instructional expenditures for special education
- Pupil support services expenditures for special education
- Instructional staff support services
- Student transportation services for special education

1. Which of the following items would your state be able to collect and report in FY 21? (check all that apply)

- Current expenditures for special education
- Instructional expenditures for special education
- Pupil support services expenditures for special education
- Instructional staff support services
- Student transportation services for special education

2. How much additional burden would your state incur as a result of reporting these items?

- Very little or no additional burden
- Moderate additional burden
- Significant additional burden
- I am uncertain; further research is required
