Privacy Act Statement
Collection and Use of Personal Information

Section 1631 of the Social Security Act, as amended, allows us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed.

We will use the information to further document your claim and make a determination regarding your Social Security benefits. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To contractors and other Federal agencies, as necessary, for the purpose of assisting the Social Security Administration (SSA) in the efficient administration of its programs. We will disclose information under this routine use only in situations in which SSA may enter a contractual or similar agreement with a third party to assist in accomplishing an Agency function relating to this system of records; and
- To third party contacts (e.g., employers and private pension plans) in situations where the party to be contacted has, or is expected to have information relating to his/her eligibility for, or entitlement to, benefits under the Social Security program when the data are needed to establish the validity of evidence or to verify the individual, and it concerns his/her eligibility for benefits under the Social Security program.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) 60-0103, entitled Supplemental Security Income, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1830. Additional information, and a full listing of all of our SORNs, is available on our website at www.ssa.gov/privacy/.
