DHS will use the information you provide to grant or deny the benefit sought. The information collected with the Form I-929 is used to assist the DHS in enforcing the immigration laws of the United States by providing timely and accurate information about persons who are subject to those laws. With the passage of the Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act (including the Battered Immigrant Women’s Protection Act) in October 2000, Congress created U nonimmigrant status and provided for the adjustment of status of U nonimmigrants, as well the adjustment of status or issuance of an immigrant visa to certain family members of U nonimmigrants. The legislation was intended to strengthen the ability of law enforcement agencies to investigate and prosecute cases of domestic violence, sexual assault, human trafficking and other	DHS Privacy Notice AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this petition, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. sections 1103, 1184, 1255. PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this petition is to request immigration benefits on behalf of a family member who has never held U nonimmigrant status.
