Abstract:

The U.S. Department of Labor (DOL), Mine Safety and Health Administration (MSHA), is making up to $400,000 available in grant funds for educational and training programs to help identify, avoid, and prevent unsafe working conditions in and around mines under section 14 of the Mine Improvement and New Emergency Response Act of 2006 (MINER Act).

The focus of these grants for the Fiscal Year 2019 will be training and training materials for mine emergency preparedness and mine emergency prevention for all underground mines. Applicants for the grants may be States (including U.S. territories, District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands), private or public nonprofit entities, to include Indian tribes, tribal organizations, Alaska Native entities, Indian-controlled organizations serving Indians, and Native Hawaiian organizations.

MSHA could award as many as eight separate grants. The amount of each individual grant will be at least $50,000, and the maximum individual award will be $400,000.

Assurances of Confidentiality:

The grant solicitations do not offer applicants assurances of confidentiality.

Special Circumstances:

Brookwood-Sago, Applications:

For the Brookwood-Sago grants, DOL would normally expect to receive 25 applications.

25 responses (1 per application) x 20 hours = 500 burden hours

MSHA estimates public reporting burden for each grant application to average 20 hours per response for reviewing instructions; searching existing data sources; gathering and maintaining the data needed; completing and reviewing the collection of information; and to prepare and submit an application in response to a Funding Opportunity Announcement. For purposes of this information collection request, the DOL assumes that a professional with an hourly cost of $53.70¹ per hour will prepare an application. Therefore, the burden for these reporting activities is as follows using average response times:

Brookwood-Sago Grants, Total Burden:

Total Responses:	25 Responses
Total Burden Hours:	500 hours
Burden Cost:	$26,850

The DOL associates no other burden costs with this information collection.

Total burden: 25 respondents (unduplicated), 25 responses; 500 hours; $0 other cost burden.
