

Attachment L: Thank-you email for non-eligible participants

Participants who go through the screener who are not selected for participation in either the user interview or the usability testing are sent the following as thanks for going through the screener.

Dear <NAME>,

Thank you for taking the time to answer a few questions from the National Center for Science and Engineering Statistics (NCSES) regarding science and engineering data and information. Though you do not meet the eligibility criteria for this particular study at this time, we hope that you will be interested in participating in future research projects.

Sincerely,

Susan Finkelpearl
VP of User Experience
