Speakers Match helps connect returned Peace Corps Volunteers with those who want to hear about Peace Corps experiences. The program maintains a database of RPCVs who have agreed to speak about their Peace Corps service. If a school or other civic group contacts us looking for an RPCV speaker, we will forward to them the contact information of RPCVs in their area who have signed up with the program. The group then contacts the RPCV directly to request a speaking session.

By participating in the Speakers Match program I consent to have my personal information shared with educators, etc., as necessary to fulfill speaking engagement requests.
