

Privacy Act Statement

This statement is provided pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 USC § 552a. The authority for collecting personally identifiable information (PII) for the ADS-B Rebate Process is contained in Section 221(a) of the FAA Modernization and Reform Act of 2012, describing the Equipage Incentive Program. The principal purpose for which the information collected is intended to be used is to identify and evaluate the applicant's qualifications for the issuance of the rebate. Submission of the data is voluntary. However, failure to provide all required information may result in the FAA being unable to process the rebate requested. The information collected to issue a rebate is included in a Privacy Act System of Records known as DOT/FAA 801, titled "Aviation Registration Records." Records from this system of records may be disclosed in accordance with the routine uses that appear in Department of Transportation (DOT)/FAA 801, Aviation Registration Records, as published in the Federal Register at 81 Fed. Reg. 54187 August 15, 2016), also available at <https://www.transportation.gov/individuals/privacy/privacy-act-system-records-notice>.

Paperwork Reduction Act Burden Statement

A federal agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, nor shall a person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. The OMB Control Number for this information collection is 2120-0769. Public reporting for this collection of information is estimated to be approximately six (6) minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, completing and reviewing the collection of information.

All responses to this collection of information are voluntary. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to: Information Collection Clearance Officer, Federal Aviation Administration, 10101 Hillwood Parkway, Fort Worth, TX 76177-1524.
