A Proceed Receivable is money that is owed the market for the purchase of livestock that has not yet been collected. The auction market may carry these amounts as a Proceeds Receivable, owed to the market, until the close of the seventh day counted from the date of the sale. After the close of the seventh day subsequent to the sale date, the market must reimburse the custodial account for any uncollected funds and the item(s) may no longer be classified as a Proceeds Receivable when preparing the custodial account analysis (reconciliation). An exception to this 7 day rule is when the purchase is made by an owner, officer or employee of the market. The payment for purchases by these related parties must be made by the close of the next business day, and may no longer be classified as a Proceeds Receivable when preparing the custodial account analysis (reconciliation) after the close of the next business day, from the date of the sale. Additionally, any time the market extends credit to a buyer, (approves a buyer to pay other than by the close of the next business day) the auction market must reimburse the custodial account for the amount of the payment for which credit has been extended.
