Sections 308 and 309 of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as Amended and Supplemented In Relevant Part

Section 308. Liability to individuals for violations; enforcement generally

- (a) If any person subject to this Act violates any of the provisions of this Act, or of any order of the Secretary under this Act, relating to the purchase, sale, or handling of livestock, the purchase or sale of poultry, or relating to any poultry growing arrangement or swine production contract, he shall be liable to the person or persons injured thereby for the full amount of damages sustained in consequence of such violation.
- (b) Such liability may be enforced either (1) by complaint to the Secretary as provided in section 309, or (2) by suit in any district court of the United States of competent jurisdiction; but this section shall not in any way abridge or alter the remedies now existing at common law or by statute, but the provisions of this Act are in addition to such remedies. (7 U.S.C. 209)

Section 309. Proceedings before Secretary for violations.

(a) COMPLAINT; RESPONSE; SATISFACTION OR INVESTIGATION. Any person complaining of anything done or omitted to be done by any stockyard owner, market agency, or dealer (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "defendant") in violation of the provisions in this subchapter¹, or of an order of the Secretary made under this subchapter, may, at any time within ninety days after the cause of action accrues, apply to the Secretary by petition which shall briefly state the facts, whereupon the complaint thus made shall be forwarded by the Secretary to the defendant, who shall be called upon to satisfy the complaint, or to answer it in writing, within a reasonable time to be specified by the Secretary. If the defendant within the time specified makes reparation for the injury alleged to be done he shall be relieved of liability to the complainant only for the particular violation thus complained of. If the defendant does not satisfy the complaint within the time specified, or there appears to be any reasonable ground for investigating the complaint, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to investigate the matters complained of in such manner and by such means as he deems proper.

¹ The phrase "this subchapter," currently used twice by the U.S.C. in the first sentence of section 309 (7 U.S.C. 210), did not appear in the original statue. The original law referenced the provisions "of 304, 305, 306, or 307," or of an order of the Secretary made under "this title." However, judicial precedent supports the broader interpretation reflected by the use of "this subchapter" in the U.S.C., which means Title 333 of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921.
