☐ I don't want to use direct deposit

What if I don't have a bank account? ⌃

The Department of Treasury requires all federal benefit payments be made by electronic funds transfer (EFT), also called direct deposit.

If you don't have a bank account, or don't wish to provide your bank account information, you must receive your payment through Direct Express Debit MasterCard. To request a Direct Express Debit MasterCard, apply at www.usdirectexpress.com or call 1-800-333-1795.

If you choose not to enroll, you'll need to call the Department of Treasury at 1-888-224-2950 and speak to a representative handling waiver requests. They'll encourage you to participate in EFT and address any questions or concerns you have.
