Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 2 hours for biographical information. This estimate includes time to gather and maintain data in the required form, to review instructions, and to complete the information collection. Section 205(d)(1) of the Federal Credit Union Act (12 U.S.C. § 1785(d)(1)), provides that, except with the prior written consent of the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Board, a person who has been convicted of any criminal offense involving dishonesty or breach of trust, or has agreed to enter into a pretrial diversion or similar program in connection with a prosecution for such offense may not:

- become, or continue as, an institution affiliated party with respect to any insured credit union; or
- otherwise participate, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of any insured credit union.

Section 205(d)(1)(B) further provides that an insured credit union may not allow any person described above to engage in any conduct or to continue any relationship prohibited by Section 205(d). Section 205(d)(3) states that “whoever knowingly violates” (d)(1)(A) or (d)(1)(B) is committing a felony, punishable by up to five years in jail and a fine of up to $1,000,000 a day. The statute also prescribes a minimum ten-year prohibition period for certain offenses.

The NCUA Board issued Interpretive Ruling and Policy Statement 08-1 (IRPS 08-1), entitled Guidance Regarding Prohibitions Imposed by Section 205(d) of the Federal Credit Union Act, to assist the credit union community in requesting the NCUA Board’s consent pursuant to Section 205(d). All requests for the NCUA Board’s consent pursuant to Section 205(d) should be submitted using the attached form. Please consult IRPS 08-1 prior to completing the attached application, as not all criminal convictions require an application to be submitted.
