Section 205(a) of the Social Security Act, as amended, authorizes us to collect this information you provide to determine eligibility of benefits for Social Security or Income applicants. We will use the information you provide to determine eligibility of benefits for Social Security or Income applicants.

Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide us with all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed.

We rarely use the information you supply us for any purpose other than to make a determination regarding eligibility for benefits. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of our programs. We may also disclose the information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, including but not limited to the following:

1. To enable a third party or agency to assist us in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage;
2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from our records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans Affairs);
3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and,
4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of our programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census and to private entities under contract with us).

We also may use the information you give us in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State and local government agencies. We use the information from these programs to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

A complete list of routine uses of the information you provided us is available in our Systems of Records Notices entitled, Claims Folder System, 60-0089 and Supplemental Security Income Record, and Special Veterans Benefits, 60-0103. Additional information about these and other system of records notices and our programs are available online at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.
