After a successful log-in, respondent sees PONL Welcome Page:

Clicking an option under the heading “What do you want to do today?” results in a list of permits, registrations, and notices held by the applicant.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://www.ttb.gov/ponl-help/amending-an>. The page content includes the following sections:

2. Select the application that you would like to amend:

- If you need to update information about the business entity ONLY, choose "Create Amendment" for the Application for Original Entity.
- If you need to update information about a particular commodity operation, choose "Create Amendment" for that operation (e.g. Application for Winery Operations).
- If you need to update both a commodity operation and the associated business entity information, choose "Create Amendment" for the commodity operation record. You will be given the opportunity to update both the commodity and entity information as part of this process.

Learn more about choosing which records to amend.

The interface shows a navigation bar with "Home", "My Submissions", "Resume Draft", and "Help". Below this is a "My Records" section with a dropdown menu set to "2. Approved commodity and entity records". A message states: "Here is a list of the permit, registration, and notice applications that you have permission to access and update. If you are looking for records that were originally filed on paper or by a colleague and don't see them here, submit a request to have them linked to your account."
