ITEM 3. Your VA FILE NUMBER is the number that appears on your VA benefit checks and all mail that we've sent to you. Generally, your VA FILE NUMBER is the social security number of the individual on whose account you are receiving benefits. Your SUFFIX (letter or 2-digit number) indicates your relationship to the qualifying individual.

ITEM 9. The Department of Treasury requires all Federal benefit payments be made by electronic funds transfer (EFT), also called direct deposit. Please attach a voided personal check or deposit slip or provide the information requested below to enroll in direct deposit. If you do not have a bank account, you must receive your payment through Direct Express Debit MasterCard. To request a Direct Express Debit MasterCard you must apply at www.usdirectexpress.com or by telephone at 1-800-333-1795. If you elect not to enroll, you must contact representatives handling waiver requests for the Department of Treasury at 1-888-224-2950. They will address any questions or concerns you may have and encourage your participation in EFT.

ITEM 17. To qualify for Survivors' and Dependents' Educational Assistance (DEA), you must be either-

- (1) The spouse or child of a veteran who is permanently or totally disabled as a result of a service-connected disability.
- (2) The spouse or child of an individual on active duty who has been listed as missing in action, captured in line of duty by hostile force, forcibly detained or interned in line of duty by hostile force, or forcibly detained or interned in line of duty by a foreign government or power for more than 90 days.
- (3) The surviving spouse or child of a veteran who died of a service-connected disability or who dies while a service-connected disability was rated permanent and total in nature.
- (4) The spouse or child of an individual on active duty for which the evidence shows that the individual is hospitalized for receiving outpatient medical care services or treatment; has a total disability permanent in nature incurred or aggravated in the line of duty in the active military, naval, or air service; and the serviceperson is likely to be discharged or released from such service for such disability.

IMPORTANT: If you are certifying that you are married for the purpose of VA benefits, your marriage must be recognized by the place where you and/or your spouse resided at the time of marriage, or where you and/or your spouse resided when you filed your claim (or a later date when you became eligible for benefits.) (38 U.S.C. § 103(c)). Additional guidance on when VA recognizes marriages is available at <http://www.va.gov/opa/marriage/>.

Eligibility for DEA will be terminated in the event that VA determines that the individual on whose account benefits are claimed is no longer totally disabled or VA is notified that the individual is no longer listed as captured, missing in action, or forcibly detained. To qualify for the Fry Scholarship, you must be the child of an individual who after September 10, 2001, died in the line of duty while serving on active duty as a member of the Armed Forces.
