Grant Program Description

The National Endowment for the Arts Literature Fellowships program offers $25,000 grants in prose (fiction and creative nonfiction) and poetry to published creative writers that enable recipients to set aside time for writing, research, travel, and general career advancement. Applications are reviewed through an anonymous process in which the only criteria for review are the artistic excellence and artistic merit of the submitted manuscript. To review the applications, the National Endowment for the Arts assembles a different advisory panel every year, each diverse with regard to geography, race and ethnicity, sex/gender, and artistic points of view.

The National Endowment for the Arts Literature Fellowships program operates on a two-year cycle with fellowships in prose and poetry available in alternating years. For FY 2021, which is covered by these guidelines, fellowships in poetry are available. Fellowships in prose (fiction and creative nonfiction) will be offered in FY 2022 and guidelines will be available in January 2021. You may apply only once each year.

Competition for fellowships is extremely rigorous. We typically receive more than 1,500 applications each year in this category and award fellowships to fewer than 3% of applicants. You should consider carefully whether your work will be competitive at the national level.

We Do Not Fund

- Individuals who previously have received two or more Literature Fellowships (in poetry or prose) or Translation Fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts.
- Individuals who have received any Literature Fellowship (in poetry or prose) or Translation Fellowship from the National Endowment for the Arts on or after October 1, 2011.
- News reporting.
- Scholarly writing. (Writers who are engaged in scholarly work may wish to contact the National Endowment for the Humanities.)
- Work toward academic degrees.

Deadline and Announcement Dates

Applications must be submitted electronically through Grants.gov, the federal government's online application system. The Grants.gov system must receive your validated and accepted application no later than 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on March 11, 2020. Late applications are not accepted.

Do not expect notification of awards and rejections before December 2020. Our support of a project may begin any time between January 1, 2021, and January 1, 2022, and extend for up to two years.

Applicant Eligibility

Creative writers who meet the requirements listed below are eligible to apply. See "How to Prepare and Submit an Application" for the documentation that is required to demonstrate eligibility. Ineligible applications will be rejected without panel review. You may submit only one application for FY 2021 funding.

You may not apply for both a Literature Fellowship under this deadline and a Translation Project under the January 15, 2020 deadline.

You are eligible to apply in Poetry if you:

- Are a Citizen or Permanent Resident of the United States.
- Have not received two or more Fellowships (in poetry, prose, or translation) from the National Endowment for the Arts. If you have received any award from the National Endowment for the Arts, you must have submitted acceptable Final Reports to the Arts Endowment by their due date(s).
- Have not received any National Endowment for the Arts Literature Fellowship (in poetry or prose) or Translation Fellowship on or after January 1, 2012 (FY 2012).
- Have had published, between January 1, 2013, and March 11, 2020:
    - A Volume of 48 or more pages of poetry; or

- 20 or more individual poems or pages of poetry that appear in at least five literary journals, anthologies, or publications which regularly include poetry as a portion of their format. Up to 16 pages of poetry may be from a single volume of poetry that is fewer than 48 pages (e.g. a chapbook). This volume may count as only one of the required five places of publication. For online publications, a page of poetry is considered to be 20 lines or less.

To qualify, work must have been published for the first time with an eligible publisher between these dates, not only reprinted or reissued in another format during this period.

You may use digital, audio, or online publications to establish eligibility, provided that the publisher has a competitive selection process and stated editorial policy. If the online publication or website no longer exists, you must provide, upon request, sufficient evidence that your work once appeared online. If sufficient evidence cannot be provided, the online publication will not be eligible.

The following may not be used to establish eligibility:

- Pre-publication material, such as galleys, proofs, and advance reader's copies.
- Work that has appeared in a publication for which you are the editor, publisher, or staff.
- Collaborative work.
- Scholarly writing.
- Instructional writing.
- News Reporting.
- Book reviews.
- Editorials/letters to the editor.
- Interviews.
- Student-led publications and publications that primarily print work by persons who are affiliated with a particular academic institution.
- Any publication by presses that: do not have a stated marketing and distribution policy; publish work without competitive selection or a stated editorial policy; or publish work without professional editing.

Your application will not be eligible if incorrect or insufficient publication information is provided in Attachment 3. See "How to Prepare and Submit an Application."

How to Prepare and Submit an Application

Application Deadline: March 11, 2020

We strongly recommend that you submit your application no later than March 2, 2020 to give yourself ample time to resolve any problems you might encounter. The Grants.gov system must receive your validated and accepted application no later than 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on March 11, 2020. You take a significant risk by waiting until the day of the deadline to submit. The National Endowment for the Arts will not accept late applications.

These application guidelines provide all of the information that you need to submit an application. We urge you to read these instructions in their entirety before you begin the application process. Keep these instructions open in a window on your computer as they contain helpful links to information that you will need as you complete your application.

Electronic application through Grants.gov is MANDATORY.

If you are unable to submit your application electronically, you may request a waiver. A waiver will be granted for the following reasons only:

• Internet access is not available within a 30-mile radius of your address.
• Disability prevents you from submitting your application electronically.

Your waiver request must be in writing and must be received at the National Endowment for the Arts at least three weeks before the application deadline. Click here for more information on waivers.

In the event a waiver is granted, your complete paper application package must be received by the Arts Endowment no later than March 11, 2020. The waiver notice will provide you with our mailing address.

Step 1: Register with Grants.gov

It is your responsibility to create and maintain a registration with Grants.gov. Registration with Grants.gov is a one-time process, which can take a day or more to complete. To allow time to resolve any issues that may arise, do not wait until the day of the application deadline to register. Failure to successfully register with Grants.gov may result in your inability to submit your application.

To register with Grants.gov, click: Register and click the red button that says "Get Registered Now" at the bottom of the screen. Next, fill out the contact information, choose a Username and Password, and then click "Continue" at the bottom of the screen. Grants.gov will email you a temporary code to verify your email address. Enter this code where instructed on the Registration page and select "Add Individual Applicant Profile" to apply for funding opportunities on your own behalf. See here for additional information on creating an individual profile.
If you have problems with registration contact Grants.gov at 1-800-518-4726, email support@grants.gov, or consult the information posted on the Grants.gov website at Support. The Grants.gov Contact Center is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Maintain documentation (with dates) of your efforts to register before the deadline.

Step 2: Go to the Grant Opportunity Package

1. Verify your software.

    You must have a version of Adobe Reader that is supported by Grants.gov installed on your computer. Incompatible versions of Adobe Reader or other Adobe products will lead to errors and prevent you from submitting your application. If more than one computer will be involved in the preparation of the application package, ensure that the same version of Adobe Reader is used on each computer.

    Go to "Adobe Software Compatibility" to see the compatible versions of Adobe Reader or to download and install Adobe Reader. See important information about versions of Adobe Reader DC here.

2. Access the application package on Grants.gov by clicking on the link below.

    When you go to Grants.gov through the link above, the Grants.gov "View Grant Opportunity" screen will open. Choose "Apply." On the next screen, choose "Apply" again. You will be prompted to enter your Grants.gov Username and Password.

    You will apply using a Grants.gov Workspace. If you want to learn more about using Grants.gov's Workspace, click here. Look for the "Application Filing Name" field above the "Create Workspace" button. Enter your legal name here, click the "Create Workspace" button, and follow the screens from there.

4. After going to the grant opportunity package and creating a Workspace, you can access each mandatory form by clicking Download OR you can access the forms online by clicking Webform.

See the "Need Help" section for more information.

7. Signature Block:

By clicking the "I Agree" box, you are certifying that your application is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and that you are in compliance with relevant federal requirements that can be found in the Assurance of Compliance section of these guidelines. The "Signature" and "Date Signed" boxes will be populated by Grants.gov upon submission of the application.

2: Complete and Attach Required Items to the Attachments Form

The "Attachments Form" is not a form in the conventional sense. Rather, it is a place to attach documents that you have completed and saved elsewhere on your computer.

1. Attachments 1 and 2 are documents that you will develop in accordance with the instructions provided. These items must be submitted as PDF files.

   These non-form documents can be created using any word processing software. When you have completed the document, save it to your computer as a PDF before attaching.

   Do not create PDFs of your electronic documents by scanning. In the past, some applicants have printed their electronic documents and then scanned them, saving the scan in PDF format. PDFs created this way are much larger, and of lower quality, than PDFs created by the methods we recommend above. Do not embed non-printable media files (video and/or sound) in your PDF documents. Static images (e.g., pictures) are acceptable. Do not enable any document security settings or password-protect any PDF file you submit to us.

   Each attachment should be no more than 2 MB.

2. Label the first page of each document clearly with the name of the item (e.g., Summary of Applicant Publications). Leave a margin of at least one inch at the top, bottom, and sides of all pages. Do not reduce type below 12 point font size. Do not type in all capital letters. Number pages sequentially. Excess pages will be removed and not reviewed.

3. Name your files as indicated below and attach them in the proper order. Limit file names to 50 or fewer characters and use only the following characters when naming your attachments: A-Z, a-z, 0-9, underscore (_), hyphen (-), space, and period. If you do not follow this rule, your application may be rejected. You cannot change the name of a file on the Attachments Form. Therefore make certain that each file is named correctly before you attach it.

When you open the Grants.gov Attachments Form, you will find 15 attachment buttons. For this application, you will only use the first two attachment buttons. By clicking on a button, you will be able to choose the PDF file from your computer that you wish to attach. Attach the proper file to the proper button as listed below.

The Attachments

To this button, attach one copy of your manuscript sample. The file name should be your last name followed by "Manuscript" (for example: Doe_Manuscript).

Your manuscript sample must be a minimum of 7 to a maximum of 10 typescript pages of poetry.

Applicants may submit one or more poems as their manuscript, but the total cannot exceed 10 pages. If submitting multiple poems, combine them all into one PDF.

Your manuscript sample must be:

1. From work that you have written in the time period that establishes your eligibility, and for which you have sole artistic responsibility. You may submit published work, unpublished work, or work in progress. Do not indicate whether or not the material has been published.

2. Completely free of your first name, last name, initials, address, or any other marks that could identify you. If your first or last name appears in your manuscript or in your header, your application will be deemed ineligible. (For example, if your name is John Doe, neither John nor Doe may appear anywhere in your manuscript.)

3. Labeled to indicate title of the sample. At the top of every page, include the page number in the upper right corner and state the title of the manuscript.

4. In typescript and clearly readable. Use a 12 point font and margins of at least one inch at the top, bottom, and sides of all pages. Do not submit more than the maximum number of pages that are allowed; excess pages will be removed and not reviewed. Click here for an example of how to format.

Remember to save your manuscript as a PDF in line with the guidance above (Step 2: Complete and Attach Required Items to the Attachments Form). Do not create PDFs of your electronic documents by scanning.

ATTACHMENT 2: SUMMARY OF APPLICANT PUBLICATIONS

To this button, attach a Summary of Applicant Publications to establish your eligibility (document must be no more than 2 MB). The file name should be your last name followed by "SummaryPubs" (for example: Doe_SummaryPubs).

At the top of this page, list your legal name, your penname (if applicable), and your email address. Your name, initials, address, or other identifying marks must not appear on any other page of the manuscript material that is submitted.

List only the specific published works that establish your eligibility, not everything you have published (e.g., no resumes). (See Eligibility for details.) We collect this information only to verify eligibility; it is not provided to our reviewers.

For each publication note:

- Title, author.
- Publisher (including name of magazine or press with physical address, and web address).
- Publication date (month and year, or volume/issue).
- ISBN or ISSN number, for a book in print.
- Number of pages of your material. (If your work appears in an anthology, this refers to your work within the collection, not the full book.)
- Page number(s) or an exact URL to your work if published online. If archived online, provide the exact URL of the archived piece.

Your Summary of Applicant Publications should be formatted as follows:

Upon request, you must provide proof of eligibility to the National Endowment for the Arts in the form of one or more of the following ways:

a. The title page or cover with your name and the title of the work.

b. The copyright page with the publisher's information; publication date (month and year); ISBN or ISSN number, if a print publication; or exact URL that features your work, if publication is online only.

c. The publication's stated selection criteria and editorial policy.

NOTE: When you check the Certification box on the SF 424-Individual form, you are certifying that all parts of your application, including your summary of the publications that establish your eligibility, are true and correct to the best of your knowledge.

Leave all remaining Attachment buttons blank.

Step 5: Submit Your Electronic Application to Grants.gov

Electronically submit the Application for Federal Domestic Assistance – Individual Form and required attachments through Grants.gov.

1. Check the size of your electronic application. The total size should not exceed 10 MB.

2. To begin the submission process, log on to Grants.gov and go to the Forms tab on the Manage My Workspace page. Click the "Sign and Submit" button, under the Forms tab. Be certain that you are satisfied with your application before you click this button. No revisions to your application are possible through Grants.gov once it is submitted.

   If you have difficulty submitting, go to Adobe Reader Error Messages or Applicant Resources for several tools and documents to help you.

3. Once you complete and submit your application, you will see a confirmation screen explaining that your submission is being processed. Retain the Grants.gov Tracking Number that you receive in the application submission confirmation screen.

4. To ensure that your application was validated and accepted by the Grants.gov system, go to Track My Application to track the validation and progress of your application submission through Grants.gov. After we retrieve your application from Grants.gov, you will be able to log in to Grants.gov to receive your Agency Tracking Number (this will be the National Endowment for the Arts-assigned application number).

NOTE: Acceptance and validation by Grants.gov does not guarantee that the applicant has uploaded the proper attachments. Before submitting your application, double check that you have attached everything correctly.

THE APPLICATION PACKAGE

Why can't I download the application materials?
It could be because your version of Adobe Reader is incompatible with the Grants.gov system. You can find a list of supported versions of Adobe Reader here, or contact Grants.gov directly to check if your version is compatible. You can also try using the Webforms, which allow you to complete the forms online without downloading and do not require you to have Adobe Reader.

Which internet browser should I use to file my application?
According to Grants.gov, Internet Explorer is the recommended browser. However, we've found that other browsers will work, too. Mac users who have download and/or upload issues should try using Google Chrome or Firefox. If you have trouble downloading the application forms, try using a different browser or try using the Webforms instead. If you are still having trouble accessing the forms, contact the Grants.gov Contact Center at 1-800-518-4726.

Why can't I find the attachments on your website?
You'll only find the attachments form on Grants.gov. Although the attachments form has 15 attachment buttons, you will submit only two attachments with your application:
   1. Your manuscript
   2. Your Summary of Applicant Publications
You can create these attachments using any word processing software.

The information I typed into my attachments form disappeared. How do I avoid this?
If you are downloading the attachments form, be sure to save it, and all your attachments, directly on your computer. Once you have downloaded the attachments form, you will work on your application offline and will only access the Internet to submit your completed application. If you are accessing the attachments form as a Webform, be sure to click the "save" button at the bottom of the screen before closing the form.
How do I upload my writing sample using the attachment form?
It's similar to attaching a document to an email. On the attachments form, click the "Add Attachment" button and select the correct file from your computer. [Reminder: you're the only one who can ensure that your application is complete.]

The character limit for the project description box on the Application for Federal Assistance form doesn't give a lot of room to describe my project. Can I add more information elsewhere?
That's not necessary. If you've reached the character limit for this box, you've written too much. This information is for staff use only to ensure that you would use your fellowship to support your writing; the review panel will not see it (the panelists will only see your manuscript). Your application will be judged only on your manuscript, so we suggest spending more time on that portion of your application and less time on crafting your project description.

How do I determine start and end dates?
The start and end dates refer to the period of National Endowment for the Arts grant performance. These dates are not project specific. Because the creative writing fellowships are not project based, fellows are not required to begin and complete a project during their period of performance.

Can I submit my resume in addition to my other forms?
No. The only part of the application that the review panel will see is your manuscript. The panel will not know your age, gender, race or ethnicity, education level, or whether you are an established or emerging writer.

How do I determine my congressional district? What if I'm an American living abroad?
Visit the House of Representatives website at www.house.gov and use the "Find Your Representative" tool. If the address on your application is outside the United States, enter 00-000 for your Congressional District.

My postal code is in red after I type it. Does this mean there's a problem?
Yes. The form requires your Zip+4. If you do not know your full zip code, you may look it up at www.usps.com/zip4/.

What happens if my name appears on or in my manuscript material?
Your application will be ineligible for further consideration and will not be reviewed by the panel. Double check to make sure your first or last name is not in the manuscript material.

Will I be able to update my application after the deadline?
No. No changes or additions to the application or manuscript will be accepted once your application has been submitted. If you feel you've made an error on your application and it is before the deadline, you may contact the Literary Arts staff for guidance by calling or emailing the Literature Fellowships hotline.

How do I create a PDF?
The simplest way is to use the "Save As" option and choose "Save as a PDF" (or similar wording) in your word processing software. You may also use a PDF conversion program. To learn more, go to PDF Conversion Programs. LINK

ELIGIBILITY

Should I list everything I've published to show I'm eligible just in case there's a question?

No. If you can establish your eligibility with one book, just list that book. If you're unsure if the book meets our eligibility requirements, list journal publications as well, but only as many as you need to establish your eligibility. Our panelists will not see your publications list.

I don't have all the information on all of my necessary publications to establish eligibility. Is that a problem?
Yes. You must include the required information per our guidelines LINK, including ISBN/ISSN numbers for books and journals. We will check your Summary of Applicant Publication document as part of the eligibility screening process. If the Literary Arts staff can't find one of the items on your list, we'll contact you for proof of publication. If you can't provide that proof, that publication will not count toward your eligibility.

My book will be released soon after the fellowship application deadline. Can I use it to establish my eligibility?
No. In order to apply, you must meet the eligibility requirements by the deadline date. Reader's advance copies, galleys, uncorrected proofs, and commitments for future publication or production do not fulfill the requirements. We use the publisher's official publication date to determine eligibility. Check with your publisher if you have questions about this date. No exceptions are made to the eligibility requirements. If your book will be published after the deadline, use other publications to establish your eligibility or consider applying at a later date.

I'm a prose writer. Can I apply for a poetry fellowship?
If you can establish your eligibility with the required number of published poetry pieces, yes. Many writers publish in various genres. Though the manuscript you submit for review must be poetry, you will not be limited to writing in one genre should you receive a fellowship.

Can the National Endowment for the Arts help me get my book published?
No. The Fellowships Program is designed to help published creative writers set aside time to write; there is no guarantee that it will lead to publication of a book. In order for your manuscript to be reviewed by our panel, you must meet our eligibility requirements.

I'm self-published. Am I eligible for a fellowship?
We do not accept as eligible any publication by presses that: do not have a stated marketing and distribution policy; publish work without competitive selection or a stated editorial policy; or publish work without professional editing. If you are unsure whether or not your publication falls outside of these parameters, call the Literature Fellowships Hotline for guidance.

I'm a blogger. Am I eligible for a fellowship?
In general, no. Personal blogs on individual websites may not be used to establish eligibility. However, curated blogs may qualify. Contact the Literature Fellowships Hotline if you feel your blog fits into this category.

Do I have to submit my application in English?

An application must be submitted in English, but the manuscript may be in a language other than English, as long as it is accompanied by an English translation, though the translation need not be done by the applicant. If you wish to submit your manuscript in a language other than English, contact the Literature Fellowships Hotline at least 10 days prior to the deadline for more guidance.

OTHER QUESTIONS

How will my application be evaluated?

Poetry applications are reviewed through an anonymous process by an advisory panel of writers that recommends awards based on the artistic excellence and merit of the submitted manuscript. The National Endowment for the Arts assembles a different advisory panel every year, each diverse with regard to geography, race and ethnicity, gender, and artistic points of view.

Will you accept joint applications?

No. Fellowships are individual grants.

I'm on faculty at a university. May the fellowship go directly to my university so that I may buy time off from teaching?

No. Fellowships are individual awards; all funds are dispersed only to the fellow. However, once our fellows receive funds, it is up to them how they wish to spend it (as long as it relates to their writing). A fellow could pay his/her university directly, in other words.

Which part of my application carries the most weight with the panel?

The most important piece of your application as far as judging is concerned is your manuscript. It should be representative of your best recent work, published or unpublished. It must be work for which you have sole artistic responsibility. Choose your manuscript sample carefully.

Can plans for use of the fellowship change, within reason?

Yes. Read the General Terms and Conditions for Literature Fellowships LINK for more information.

If you have questions about your application, contact the Literary Arts staff at 202-682-5034 or email LitFellowships@arts.gov.

Application Review

Review Criteria

In reviewing applications for Literature Fellowships, advisory panelists consider solely the artistic excellence and artistic merit of the work that is submitted. The identity of the applicant is not known to the panelists.

What Happens to Your Application

Applications are evaluated according to the review criteria above.

After processing by our staff, applications are reviewed, in closed session, by advisory panelists in the literary arts field. Each literary arts panel comprises a diverse group of arts experts and at least one knowledgeable layperson. Panel membership rotates regularly. Panel recommendations are forwarded to the National Council on the Arts, which then makes recommendations to the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts. The Chairman reviews the Council's recommendations and makes the final decision on all grant awards. Applicants are then notified of funding decisions.
