

Broadcast Email Announcement

Subject: Participants needed for questionnaire testing

From the Desk of Paul Beatty (Chief, Center for Behavioral Science Methods)

The Center for Behavioral Science Methods is looking for participants to help test question wording on a national survey about housing-related topics. Homeowners and renters are welcome! Interviews will be one hour and may take place by phone. We will provide $40 to each person who participates in the study (federal employees are not eligible to receive the $40). We particularly need participants who meet any of the following criteria:

- Own a home with one or more mortgages, loans, or lines of credit
- Own a single family home in the metro area of San Francisco, CA; Birmingham, AL; or San Antonio, TX
- Rent a home and moved within the past two years

If interested, please call Kevin at (301) 763-4979 or email at csm.participate@census.gov. Please mention the word Housing.

Please feel free to pass this request along to other people that you may know. Only one person per household may qualify.

Craigslist Advertisement

Volunteers needed to test survey - $40 for 1 hour

The U.S. Census Bureau is looking for people who meet either of the following criteria:

- Own a single family home with one or more mortgages, loans, or lines of credit
- Rent a home and moved within the past two years

Only one person per household may qualify. Each participant will receive $40.00 compensation for participating in this study. Those participants meeting any of the requirements should call Kevin at (301) 763-4979 or email at csm.participate@census.gov. Please mention the word Housing.

Please feel free to pass this request along to other people that you may know.