

Internal Census Bureau Email Announcement

Subject: Participants needed for questionnaire testing

From the Desk of Paul Beatty (Chief, Center for Behavioral Science Methods)

The Census Bureau is looking for pairs of people 18 and older who live in the same household (either related or unrelated) to help test question wording on a national survey about arts and leisure activities.

In each pair, at least one person must meet any of the following criteria:

- Has attended a live musical performance, stage production, or any other live artistic performance in the last two years
- Engages in creative activities of any kind, whether professionally or for one's own pleasure, such as making art or crafts, playing music, dancing, acting, etc.
- Lives in a household with one or more children under the age of 18 (either one's own children or someone else's children)

Interviews will last up to 75 minutes and will be conducted by phone. We will provide $40 to each person who participates in the study. Federal employees are not eligible to receive the $40.

If interested, please call [NAME] at [PHONE NUMBER] or email at [EMAIL]. Please mention the word "ARTS."

Please feel free to pass this request along to other people you may know. Only one pair per household may qualify.
