

Debriefing question

[For each of the scenarios in which the participant omitted people in the house, ask the following:]

For the scenario that involved [insert here scenario being discussed], you answered that you would count [enter here the participant's response] in the census.

Can you please tell me a little bit more about the things that you considered or what went through your head when deciding who to count in this situation?