RESPONSIBILITIES

1. UNDER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR PERSONNEL AND READINESS

(USD(P&R)). The USD(P&R), through the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Readiness and Force Management and the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Military Personnel Policy (DASD(MPP)) as appropriate, shall:

- a. Provide overall guidance for implementing the policies and responsibilities in this Directive.
- b. Validate the USMEPCOM resource levels to ensure that they are consistent with the workload of the Military Services and approve all individual Military Service resource adjustments and staffing authorizations, military and civilian, to the USMEPCOM.
- c. Prescribe responsibilities and operating procedures relating to the Military Entrance Processing Station (MEPS) in coordination with the Military Services and the Selective Service System (SSS).
- d. Approve changes to DoD standard forms submitted by USMEPCOM for change consistent with ~~DoD 8910.1-M~~ DoD Manual 8910.01 (Reference (~~fe~~)) and DoD ~~Manual~~ 7750.07-M (Reference (~~gf~~)).

2. ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR HEALTH AFFAIRS (ASD(HA)). The ASD(HA), under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(P&R), shall act as an advisor to the USD(P&R) concerning the medical aspects of the USMEPCOM's operations.

3. SECRETARIES OF THE MILITARY DEPARTMENTS. The Secretaries of the Military Departments shall:

- a. Nominate one O-6 officer to the DASD(MPP) as a candidate for the position of the Commander, USMEPCOM, each cycle. A normal tour of duty shall be 3 years. Position authorization and assignment shall rotate among the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, and the Marine Corps. The selected candidate's branch shall fund the billet for the full tour.
- b. Be responsible for the pay and allowance and permanent change of station travel expenses of military personnel permanently or temporarily assigned to the management or operations of the USMEPCOM.
- c. Be responsible for the transportation, meals, and lodging costs for its applicants and enlistees; except that the USMEPCOM shall pay for any intra-city transportation costs applicants may require for MEPS-directed support of their processing.

d. Staff their USMEPCOM billets at 100 percent of the authorized strength.

4. SECRETARY OF THE ARMY. The Secretary of the Army, in addition to the responsibilities outlined in Section 3 of this enclosure, shall:

a. Serve as the DoD Executive Agent for USMEPCOM. Support in accordance with Reference (b), responsible for programming, budgeting, and funding all USMEPCOM operations. Obtain prior approval from the USD(P&R) before reducing USMEPCOM's funding or resources.

b. Provide resourcing, staffing, and administrative management support responsibilities for the DoD enlistment, student, and overseas testing programs, consistent with policies established in DoDI 1304.12E (Reference (hg)).

c. Respond promptly to the Commander, USMEPCOM, once notified of any action (proposed or taken) that adversely affects accession processing or other readiness activities of the USMEPCOM with respect to resourcing, staffing, and administrative actions.

d. Seek agreement with the Commander, USMEPCOM, regarding any resourcing, staffing, or administrative action with the goal of eliminating or mitigating any adverse effects.

5. COMMANDER, USMEPCOM. The Commander, USMEPCOM, shall:

a. Under the DASD(MPP), retain full authority for the USMEPCOM mission and internal operations. Realignment and reorganization authority in addition to USMEPCOM personnel rating responsibility remain with the DASD(MPP).

b. Assist the Military Services in ensuring that the military service standards set in References (c) and (d), such as age, citizenship, education, aptitude, physical fitness, dependency status, etc., are met when processing applicants.

c. Provide medical and aptitude testing support to other Federal agencies, including the special category non-applicants such as the National Civilian Community Corps, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and officer candidates when approved by the DASD(MPP).

d. Submit written notification of any action (proposed or taken) that affects accession processing or any other readiness activity in a manner that will have a significant adverse effect on military readiness, as determined through consultation with the DASD(MPP). Such notification shall identify the action and each significant adverse effect to the head of the executive agency taking, or proposing to take, the administrative action.

e. Authorize payment for any intra-city transportation costs applicants may require for MEPS-directed support of their processing.

f. As designated by the Secretary of Defense, exercise General Court-Martial Convening Authority under Article 22 of Chapter 47 of Reference (d) (also known and hereinafter referred to as “The Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ)”). Commanders, Eastern and Western Sectors, USMEPCOM, as designated by the Secretary of Defense, shall exercise Special and Summary Court-Martial Convening Authorities, respectively, in accordance with Articles 23-24 of the UCMJ.

(1) The Commander, USMEPCOM, sector commanders, battalion commanders, and MEPS commanders are authorized to impose non-judicial punishment on members of their respective commands, regardless of Military Service of the imposing commander or the recipient military member on whom punishment is imposed.

(2) In cases where the branch of the Military Service of the imposing commander and the recipient differ, the imposing commander shall follow the non-judicial punishment procedures and administrative requirements applicable to the recipient’s branch of the Military Service.
