To get started, true or false, I have performed many, if not all, the duties of a DoD Component action officer including, but not limited to, writing content for DoD issuances, organizing content from other divisions, incorporating content into the issuance template, incorporating edits from the Directives Division, etc.

- True
- False

If the answer is true:

1. Are you a government employee? Y or N
2. Which component do you work with? (Text)
3. In a few words, what's your current role within your component? (Text box)

DRAFT

4. How long have you worked for the DoD or for a contractor supporting the DoD? (indicate cumulative years if necessary)

5. Which statement most fits your situation?

- I am the AO on this issuance because of my writing/editing skills.
- I am the AO on this issuance because of my subject matter expertise.
- I am the AO on this issuance because of something else. Please explain. (Text box)

6. How long were you in your position when you first became an AO for the first time?

- Less than 1 year
- 1-2 years
- 3-5 years
- 6-10 years
- Over 10 years

DRAFT

8. On a scale of 1-10 with ten being extremely difficult and one being extremely easy, how would you rate the issuances compliance process in general? (Sliding scale)

9. On a scale of 1-10 with ten being extremely difficult and one being extremely easy, how would you rate the usability of the issuance template provided to you? (Sliding scale)

10. On a scale of 1-10 with ten being extremely difficult to understand and one being extremely easy to understand, how would you rate the Directive Division Standards or other guidance documents on the website? (Sliding scale)

11. When you think of the total amount of time you spend working on the issuance, approximately what percentage of that time is dedicated to complying with Directive Division requirements vs. working the content of your document? (For example, formatting issues, learning the standards, re-working your documents to comply with the standards, etc.) (Sliding scale)

12. If we could do one thing to make your experience as an AO easier, what would that be? (Text box)

13. Select one of the following for each statement (Mark “x” for the one that applies):

	Strongly Agree	Disagree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
I was/am concerned that the policy outlined in my issuance will conflict with other DoD policy without my component’s knowledge.
My component and I are very aware when a federal law or statute changes that will affect the policy in our issuance.
I have enough time to make the content of my issuance (as opposed to formatting) well written and effective.
Complying with the Standards of the Directives Division is outside the scope of my
