What's New

Effective January 2018, send Form 11-C and/or Form 11-C(V), Payment Voucher, to Ogden UT. See Where to file, later, for the updated address.

General Instructions

Purpose of form. Form 11-C is used to register certain information with the IRS and to pay the occupational tax on wagering. You must pay the occupational tax if you accept taxable wagers for yourself or another person. There are two amounts of occupational tax ($50 or $500). One or the other applies depending on whether the wagers you accept are authorized by the laws of the state in which you accept the wager. See Line 2 later to determine your occupational tax. Your cancelled check is proof of registration and payment.

Who must file. File Form 11-C if you're a principal or an agent.

1. A principal is a person who is in the business of accepting taxable wagers for his or her own account. This is the person who makes a profit or risks loss depending on the outcome of the event or contest for which the wager is accepted.

2. An agent is a person who accepts taxable wagers on the principal's behalf.

Taxable wagers include those placed:

- On a sports event or contest with a person engaged in the business of accepting wagers on a sports event or contest.
- In a wagering pool on a sports event or contest if the pool is conducted for profit.
- In a lottery conducted for profit (other than a state-conducted lottery). The term lottery includes the number game, policy, punch boards, and similar types of wagering.

What isn't taxed. The tax isn't imposed on the following five items.

- A parimutuel wagering enterprise, including horse racing, dog racing, and jai alai, when licensed under the laws of the state in which accepted.
- Coin-operated devices, such as pinball machines.
- Sweepstakes, wagering pools, or lotteries that are conducted by an agency of a state, if the wager is placed with the state agency or its authorized agents or employees.
- Games of the type in which usually all persons placing wagers in the game are present when wagers are placed, winners are determined, and prizes or other property are distributed.
- Drawings conducted by an organization exempt from tax under sections 501 or 521, as long as the net proceeds of the drawing don't inure to the benefit of a private shareholder or individual.

Definitions. See the Instructions for Form 730, Monthly Tax Return for Wagers, for the definition of sports event, contest, wagering pool, and lottery.

When to file. File the first return before wagers are accepted. After that, file a renewal return by July 1 for each year wagers are accepted. A first return also is due in certain situations in which there has been a change in ownership or control. The return must be filed within 30 days after new members are admitted to a firm or partnership, a corporation is formed to continue the business of a partnership, or a stockholder continues the business of a dissolved corporation.

Employer Identification Number (EIN). Enter your EIN. If you don't have an EIN, apply for one online. Go to the IRS website at www.irs.gov/EIN. You also may apply for an EIN by faxing or mailing Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to the IRS.

Address. If you're an individual, enter your home address.

Signature. Form 11-C must be signed by a person who has authority to sign for the taxpayer.

Where to file. Send Form 11-C, your check or money order, and Form 11-C(V) to:

Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service
