

or partner in connection with the Casualty or Taking, as provided for in the Owner's limited partnership agreement or operating agreement, such as repurchase of an interest, the triggering of "credit adjusters", or otherwise;

v. to the Owner, to the extent not otherwise covered by paragraph (iii), above, in an amount equal to the amount that the Owner is required to pay or distribute upon dissolution in accordance with its limited partnership agreement or operating agreement, including without limitation all debts of the Owner whether to third persons or to partners or members, and whether for funds advanced, property or services, but disregarding for this purpose any provision in the limited partnership agreement or operating agreement for distribution of residual funds;

vi. to the PHA an amount equal to the total "cost of construction" attributable to the Project Units, less the sum of (i), (ii) and (iii), above; and,

vii. to the Owner.

5. The term "cost of construction" shall mean the total cost of developing the Development, less land acquisition costs, if any, included as part of the initial development budget.

6. The above restoration requirements must be incorporated into or otherwise addressed by the Regulatory and Operating Agreement between the PHA and the Owner (and ground lease, if applicable) and all mortgage documents encumbering the Development shall be consistent with these provisions.

D. Section 9, Substantial Default: In addition to the requirements of Section 9 of the ACC, the following shall constitute an event of substantial default under the ACC:

1. The drawdown and/or expenditure of Public Housing Funds is in an amount greater than approved in the Development Proposal or in an amount greater than allowed by the Public Housing Requirements;

2. a serious and material breach of any provision of the Development Proposal; and,

3. a serious and material breach of any terms, covenants, agreements, provisions, or warranties of:

a. The PHA, which in the opinion of HUD, adversely affects the performance obligations of the PHA, the Owner, and/or other participating parties; and

b. the Owner, partner, or other participating party, made in any agreement or document submitted to HUD as part of the Development Proposal, which, in the opinion of HUD, adversely affects the performance obligations of the PHA, the Owner, partner, and/or other participating parties.

4. HUD shall permit an Owner, partner, or lender to participate, and may in its discretion, permit any other party to the Development to participate in any appeal from a notice of substantial default delivered by HUD to the PHA pursuant to this Mixed-Finance Amendment or the Public Housing Requirements, with respect to the Project.

5. During the term of any agreement between the PHA and Owner, and so long as the Owner shall not be in default of its obligations thereunder, HUD agrees that in the event of the substantial default by the PHA under this Mixed-Finance Amendment, HUD shall exercise any remedies or sanctions authorized by the ACC and this Mixed-Finance Amendment or the Public Housing Requirements, including taking possession of the PHA's interest in the Project, in such a manner as not to disturb the Owner's rights under any such agreements.

6. Any rights of the mortgagee under a Note and First Mortgage (if any), including the right to exercise all remedies specified therein, shall not be subordinate to any other obligations imposed upon the Project, except as such obligations (a) shall be reflected in the HUD restrictive covenant approved by HUD, as provided for in Paragraph B of this Mixed-Finance Amendment, or a memorandum of lease (if applicable), and/or any other recorded instrument which shall have been recorded prior to the lien of the First Mortgage or (b) shall be the subject of a subordination agreement with such mortgagee.

IV. Terms and Conditions: All other terms and conditions of the ACC shall remain applicable to the Project, unless otherwise waived or amended by HUD.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice informs the public that HUD is seeking approval from OMB for the proposed collection of information described in Section A.

A. Overview of Information Collection

Title of Information Collection: License for the Use of Personally Identifiable Information Protected Under the Privacy Act of 1974.

OMB Approval Number: 2528–0297.

Type of Request: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Form Number: N/A.

Description of the need for the information and proposed use: The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) collects and maintains personally identifiable information on tenants in public and assisted housing, the confidentiality of which is protected by the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a). On occasion, HUD shares this information with researchers subject to stringent requirements to protect these households from unauthorized disclosure of information. The purpose for sharing is to further policy-relevant research on the effectiveness of HUD programs.

HUD may, under the terms of its Routine Use Inventory (77 FR 17361), share these data with researchers whom HUD has awarded contracts, grants, or service agreements. HUD has shared data with contractors and grantees and will continue to share data under service agreements because it has a legal form for effectuating such an agreement. HUD does not limit access to the information to parties that have received specific funding to carry out a study through a grant or contract. Instead, HUD also shares the data with legitimate research organizations that have conceived policy-relevant analyses and that are able and willing to protect the data from unauthorized disclosure. The legal form for the service agreement is herein called a “license.”

HUD will continue making the data available for statistical, research, or evaluation purposes to organizations qualified and capable of research and analysis consistent with the statistical, research, or evaluation purposes for which the data were provided or are maintained, but only if the data are used and protected in accordance with the terms and condition stated in the license, upon receipt of such assurance of qualification and capability, and it is agreed by the organization requesting such information and HUD.

B. Solicitation of Public Comment

This notice solicits comments from members of the public and affected parties concerning the collection of information described in Section A on the following:

(1) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) The accuracy of the agency’s estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information;

(3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including the use of appropriate automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

HUD encourages interested parties to submit comment in response to these questions.

Authority: Section 3507 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. Chapter 35.

Dated: October 28, 2019.
