

Appendix F: Crosswalk of Changes
Annual Eligibility Redetermination, Product Discontinuation and Renewal Notices (CMS-10527/0938-1254)

In addition to formatting corrections, we made the following changes to improve accuracy and clarity of the notices.

Attachment #	Section	Revision (Red indicates modified Language)
2	Your new premium	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Your new monthly payment (starting in [12 Month]) is [13 estimated]: $[14 to be $[13 Dollar amount]. This reflects an [1514 estimated] monthly premium of $[1615 Dollar amount] minus the same[16 Phrase or dollar amount of financial help you're getting now.]. However, your financial help may be different next year. You'll see your new monthly payment when you receive your [17 Month] bill. Important: This estimated monthly payment is based on current information we have for [18 Year]. It doesn't might not account for some or all changes that could impact your amount of financial help monthly payment, like cost changes in your area for next year, or changes to your household income or family size. To find out the actual amount of financial help you qualify for in [19 Year] and your new premium amount, monthly payment, update your [20 Exchange19 Exchange] application. See below for more information.

6	What you need to do	1. Update your [14 Exchange] application by [15 Date]. Review your [16 Exchange] application to make sure the information is still current and correct, and to see if you may qualify for more or less financial help [17 in Year] than you're getting now. This may result in a lower monthly premium payment or lower out-of-pocket costs (like deductibles, copayments, and coinsurance). Plus, you can help avoid paying money back when you file your taxes and reconcile your tax credit.
