

Consultant Network Application
Training and Technical Assistance Expert Consultant

Thank you for your interest in applying to be a consultant with the National Human Trafficking Training and Technical Assistance Center (NHTTAC), which is administered by ICF on behalf of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Office on Trafficking in Persons (OTIP). Please complete the Consultant Network Training and Technical Assistance Expert Application as accurately as possible, as this information will be used to match your experience with specific requests for speakers or impact statements. This application will take you approximately 15 minutes to complete. You will then be asked to submit supporting documents via email, including your resume, CV, publications, biographical sketch, and other sample materials such as recordings of presentations, media interviews, PowerPoint presentations, etc. You will be able to save your progress, exit the document, and return to it as needed.

If you need assistance completing this form, or have specific questions, please contact NHTTAC at svega@nhttac.org.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act, a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The estimated average time to complete this form is 15 minutes. If you have comments regarding the accuracy of this estimate or additional suggestions, please write to the NHTTAC Evaluation Team at NHTTACEval@icf.com or 9300 Lee Highway, Fairfax, VA 22031.

Before proceeding with this application:

Anyone can experience vicarious trauma, compassion fatigue, and burnout at any time, which can disrupt their ability to work in the anti-trafficking field. As a consultant, you may experience situations that can be triggering. Please consider your well-being before submitting the application.

If you feel you are not ready to enroll as a consultant or have questions or concerns about working as a consultant, please contact NHTTAC prior to completing this application. NHTTAC is invested in supporting your professional development and can provide you with alternative resources to help you continue your work in the anti-trafficking field.

Please think carefully about your decision to enroll, and consider talking with your support system before you make your decision. You may also consider measuring your current professional quality of care by using the Professional Quality of Life Scale (PROQOL): http://www.proqol.org/ProQol_Test.html.

- I confirm that I have considered my role as a consultant, and I feel comfortable completing this application.
- I am not interested in enrolling as a consultant at this time; however, I would like to be contacted by a training and technical assistance specialist.

In order to be an OTIP consultant, you must be a U.S. citizen or eligible to work in the United States. If you have any questions, please contact NHTTAC at info@nhttac.org.

- Are you a U.S. citizen? Yes No
- If NO, are you eligible to work in the United States? Yes No
- Are you an employee of the federal government? Yes No

Anyone can experience vicarious trauma, compassion fatigue, and burnout at any time, which can disrupt their ability to work in the anti-trafficking field. As a consultant, you may experience situations that can be triggering. Please consider your well-being before submitting an application.

If you feel that you are not ready to enroll as a consultant, or have questions or concerns about working as a consultant, please contact NHTTAC prior to completing this application. NHTTAC is invested in supporting your professional development and can provide you with alternative resources to help you continue your work in the anti-trafficking field.

Please think carefully about your decision to enroll, and consider talking with your support system before you make your decision. You may also consider measuring your current professional quality of care by using the Professional Quality of Life Scale (PROQOL): http://www.proqol.org/ProQol_Test.html

- I confirm that I have considered my role as a consultant, and I feel comfortable completing this application.
- I am not interested in enrolling as a consultant at this time; however, I would like to be contacted by a training and technical assistance specialist.

In order to be an OTIP consultant, there must be a minimum of 3–5 years since the trafficking victimization.

- I confirm that it has been at least 3–5 years since the trafficking victimization.
- It has not been 3–5 years since my trafficking experience; however, I would like to be contacted by a training and technical assistance specialist.
