e-4010 Filing Not Required (Only Schedules G and FG)

Based on the information you have provided, an e-4010 filing is not required for the current information year. However, because a filing was required for the prior information year, you must submit Schedules G and FG that you have just completed to notify PBGC that a filing is not required for the current information year.

Click on the button below to display the Filing Summary page. From there, you can choose to submit these two schedules to PBGC or review the information entered into Schedules G and FG prior to submission.

Warning: Because you need only submit Schedules G and FG, when you click on the "Go to Filing Summary" page, any information currently entered on other schedules (i.e., Schedules I, F, or P) will be deleted. If that is not your intention, select the "Back" button to change your prior responses.

Plan: plan 1: 12-1234567/123

Which of the following five statements describes the method under which the additional information required under §4010.8(a)(11) will be provided?

All of the information is included in one actuarial valuation report. It is my understanding that the report will be submitted:

- As an attachment to this filing
- Electronically within 15 days of the IRS Form 5500 filing deadline for the plan year ending within the information year

The actuarial valuation report does not contain all of the additional required information. Therefore, supplemental information will also be provided. It is my understanding that the report and the supplemental information will be submitted:

- As an attachment to this filing
- Electronically within 15 days of the IRS Form 5500 filing deadline for the plan year ending within the information year
- A combination of the two above
