TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION:

Office of the Comptroller of the Currency - Federal Financial Institution Examination Council (FFIEC) In-Person Courses

PURPOSE:

The purpose of the data collection is to assess the effectiveness of the FFIEC’s examiner training courses. The FFIEC was established pursuant to title X of Public Law 95-630, the Financial Institutions Regulatory and Interest Rate Control Act of 1978 (FIRA). The purpose of title X was to create an interagency body empowered to "prescribe uniform principles and standards for the federal examination of financial institutions and make recommendations to promote uniformity in the supervision of these financial institutions." As a part of its mandate, the Council conducts training programs for federal and state examiners. This collection of information will seek routine customer feedback about the FFIEC’s examiner training.

The customer feedback surveys will be solicited immediately following the completion of each examiner training event.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS:

Respondents from FFIEC training events may include state financial institution examiners and representatives from financial institutions, trade associations, third-party providers, and consultants.
