USCIS, however, will mail secure identity documents to a U.S. business address of an attorney admitted to practice law outside of the United States or to a designated Army/Air Post Office (APO), Fleet Post Office (FPO), or Diplomatic Post Office (DPO) address. USCIS will mail notices and other correspondence to a foreign address. ...	Confirmation Restricted Delivery service. The representative will be required to sign for delivery of your document and provide identification as requested by USPS. If the client wants to receive notices containing Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, rather than having USCIS send these notices to the attorney or accredited representative of record, Item Number 1.c. must be selected. NOTE: USCIS will not mail secure identity documents to a private, commercial, or business address in a foreign country.
