

Working to Reduce Teen Pregnancy: Crosswalk Showing Relationship among Short/Intermediate-Term Objectives and Data Sources

Objectives	Data Sources
	Health Center Partner ¹				Youth Serving Organization (YSO) Partner ²			Awardee
	Org Assess ³ (Att 4)	Provider Survey (Att 5)	Youth Survey (N/A)	PMRT ⁴ (Att 6&7)	Org Assess ³ (N/A)	Staff Survey (N/A)	PMRT ⁴ (N/A)	T/TA Tool ⁵ (Att 8)	PMRT ³ (Att 9)

Short-Term Objectives
1. Improve health center organizational factors (e.g., financing, clinical policies, protocols, practices, medication formulary, appointment scheduling) that support high quality ASRH services	X							X
2. Increase health center staff knowledgeable about and support of implementation of evidence-based guidelines for reproductive health services, youth friendly best practices, and the provision of the most effective types of contraception to sexually active teens		X						X
3. Increase frequency with which sexually active youth are screened for pregnancy intention, counseled on the full range of FDA approved methods of birth control, and provided method that youth selects without delay at partner health centers		X		X
4. Increase the extent to which SRH services at partner health centers are provided in a youth-friendly manner		X	X
5. Increase in implementation of organizational policies at partner youth serving organizations (YSOs) that support efforts to link youth to SRH services					X			X
6. Increase in YSO staff support of efforts to link youth to SRH services						X		X
7. Increase in YSO staff knowledge about screening youth to determine need for SRH services and provide referrals						X		X
8. Increase in number of youth at partner YSO's receiving referral to SRH services							X

¹All of the health center partner assessments will be conducted during the extension period except for the Youth Survey. ²None of the YSO assessments will be conducted during the extension period. ³Organizational Assessment, ⁴Performance Measure Reporting Tool, ⁵Training and Technical Assistance Tool

Working to Reduce Teen Pregnancy: Crosswalk Showing Relationship among Short/Intermediate-Term Objectives and Data Sources

Objectives	Data Sources
	Health Center Partner				Youth Serving Organization (YSO) Partner			Awardee
	Org Assess ¹ (Att 4)	Provider Survey (Att 5)	Youth Survey	PMRT ² (Att 6&7)	Org Assess ¹	Staff Survey	PMRT ²	T/TA Tool ³ (Att 8)	PMRT ² (Att 9)

Short-Term Objectives (cont.)
9. Increase in youth in the community receiving information about where to get SRH services through health communications and outreach efforts										X
Intermediate Objectives
10. More youth visit health center partners				X
11. Increase in number of youth at health center partners that are screened to identify sexually active youth in need of SRH services (regardless of original visit purpose)				X
12. Increase in number of youth who receive SRH services				X
13. More youth receive effective contraception				X
14. Among those youth who receive effective contraception, a larger percentage receives highly effective contraception (i.e., IUD or contraceptive implant).				X

¹All of the health center partner assessments will be conducted during the extension period except for the Youth Survey. ²None of the YSO assessments will be conducted during the extension period. ³Organizational Assessment, ⁴Performance Measure Reporting Tool, ⁵Training and Technical Assistance Tool