U.S. Department of Energy Zero Energy Ready Home Terms of the Agreement

ARCHITECT/DESIGNER PARTNER

Introduction

Through this agreement, the registered organization ("Partner") joins in partnership with the Department of Energy (DOE). Partner recognizes that by accepting this agreement it is expected to design homes to meet the DOE Zero Energy Ready Home National Program Requirements.

The DOE Zero Energy Ready Home offers leading architects and designers a timely solution for differentiating their product from existing homes as well as minimum code new homes. The DOE Zero Energy Ready Home label – the symbol of excellence in home performance - makes it easy for consumers to identify zero net-energy ready homes that are so efficient a small renewable energy system can offset most or all annual energy consumption.

Program Definitions and Eligible Organizations

1. Eligible organizations: Architect/Designer partners may be any company, person or entity that designs single-family homes, multifamily buildings, affordable housing, or manufactured homes.

2. Definitions:
 - a. DOE Zero Energy Ready Home is a home that meets all of the criteria found in the DOE Zero Energy Ready Home National Program Requirements. DOE Zero Energy Ready Homes are verified by a registered third-party verifier partner and are at least 40%-50% more energy efficient than a typical new home. This generally corresponds to a Home Energy Rating System \(HERS\) Index Score in the low to mid-50s (without renewable energy), depending on the size of the home and region in which it is built.
 - b. Zero net-energy ready homes are so efficient a small renewable energy system can offset most or all annual energy consumption.
 - c. DOE Zero Energy Ready Home logo distinguishes certified homes as being among the top performing homes in the nation.
 - d. DOE Zero Energy Ready Home certificate is automatically generated from compliance software. It includes energy savings information as well as a HERS Index Score.
 - e. DOE Zero Energy Ready Home verification form provides information needed to calculate program savings. It can be generated from compliance software.
