OMB No. 3133-0130

A. JUSTIFICATION

1. Circumstances that make the collection of information necessary.

Federal Credit Unions (“FCU”) may reimburse its board members for reasonable and proper costs incurred in conducting their official responsibilities only if the reimbursement is in accordance with the written reimbursement policies and procedures established by the FCU’s board of directors. Access to this plan, and documentation related to its implementation is necessary for NCUA examiners to verify compliance with this requirement.

The information collection is authorized under Section 120 of the Federal Credit Union (“FCU”) Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1766(a) and section 701.33(b)(2)(1) of NCUA Regulations, 12 CFR §701.33(b)(2)(i).

2. Purpose and use of the information collected.

Each FCU must maintain and retain a written reimbursement policy to ensure that the FCU makes payments to its director within the guidelines that the FCU has established in advance and to enable examiners to easily verify compliance by comparing the policy to the actual reimbursements.
