TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: Web-based Customer Experience Survey on USDA National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA) Webpages

PURPOSE OF COLLECTION:

The goal is to collect feedback through an online web survey on an ongoing basis to gain qualitative insights from customers on how to enhance USDA-NIFA's online presence and service to our Nation. USDA-NIFA will gather information regarding the website interaction, satisfaction with services provided and information available to USDA customers, and customer demographics.

USDA-NIFA's overall objective is to invest in and support initiatives that support the long-term viability of agriculture. The USDA-NIFA website (<https://www.nifa.usda.gov/>) provides information on programs and grants for its external customers and resources such as reporting tools and official documents for the public.

Survey insights will be used to inform short-term site improvements, long-term strategic priorities, and build a data driven culture of feedback within USDA to improve customer experience performance.

A PDF representation of the survey is included in this submission.
