Instructions

- Report employees working at the location specified in the address label on page 1.
- Report employees who are on paid leave or assigned temporarily to other work locations.
- Report paid owners and officers of incorporated firms.
- Do not report contract workers or owners or partners of unincorporated firms.

Reporting Job Titles:

- Report employee job titles according to the work they are doing, not their training.
Example: Report an employee working as a drafter, but trained as an engineer, as a drafter.
- Supervisors who spend at least 80 percent of their time supervising should be reported separately from supervisors or lead workers who spend less than 80 percent of their time supervising.

Example: Report a head cashier as a supervisor of cashiers if they spend more than 80 percent of their time supervising other cashiers. Report them as a cashier if they spend less than 80 percent of their time supervising other cashiers.

- Report construction helpers separately from the people they are helping.
Example: Report carpenters separately from carpenter helpers.

Reporting Wage Rates

- Report an hourly wage rate or annual salary for full-time employees. Report hourly wage rates for part-time employees. If wage rates are recorded differently, such as by the month, convert them to an hourly wage rate.
- Report employees by their actual wage rates. Please do not report an average wage rate for all employees in an occupation.
- For employees who earn tips, commissions, or piece-rate payments, calculate their hourly wage rate or annual earnings, including their base pay plus tips, commissions, or piece rates.

About the Occupational Employment Statistics (OES) Program

- OES publishes total employment levels and average wage rates for over 800 occupations nationwide.
- Data is available by state, metropolitan, and other sub-state areas, or by industry.
- Your response is strictly confidential per the Confidential Information and Statistical Efficiency Act of 2002. The full BLS Confidentiality Pledge is available at WWW.BLS.GOV/BLS/CONFIDENTIALITY.HTM.

OES Data Uses

- OES data are used to identify employment demands in specific geographic areas or industries.
- Employers use OES data to ensure they are paying competitive wages.
- Students, counselors, veteran services organizations, workforce agencies and job seekers use OES wage and employment information for education and career planning.
