Purpose of Attachment

This attachment outlines the page contents and functionality of the MyECLS website, (<https://MyECLS.ed.gov>). Each screenshot is followed by the English and Spanish text that is displayed on the screen, and relevant information about the functionality of the screen. This version of the website is planned for the ECLS preschool field test to be conducted in spring and fall 2020. The survey screens may have minor differences in appearance to accommodate survey programming.

All screens will have:

- three logos, including the ECLS logo on the left side of the screen, the National Center for Education Statistics logo at center-right, and the Department of Education logo on the right side of the screen. Clicking the ECLS logo will route the respondent to the ECLS home page (<https://MyECLS.ed.gov>), clicking the National Center for Education Statistics logo will route to the NCES website (<https://nces.ed.gov/>), and clicking the Department of Education logo will route to the Department of Education website (<https://www.ed.gov/>);
- recommended browser and help desk contact information and a link to Screen 21 (Study Information Page – Spring/Fall). The English text will read: “For best results, use Google Chrome, Firefox, or Safari. Questions or problems? Contact the study at 1-855-898-2018 or email ECLS@westat.com. Please click here for more information about the study.” The Spanish text will read “¿Tiene preguntas o problemas? Contacte al estudio llamando al 1-855-898-2018 o envíe un correo electrónico a ECLS@westat.com. Por favor haga clic aquí para obtener más información sobre el estudio.”;
- instructions for saving responses and closing browser windows. The English text will read: "When you have finished or if you need to stop before finishing, please LOG OUT of the survey system by clicking "Save and exit" and CLOSE ALL browser windows or screens to keep your responses secure. For example, if you used Chrome or Safari to open the survey, make sure no Chrome or Safari windows or screens are open after you end the survey. Not closing all browsers may allow someone else to see your responses." The Spanish text will read "Cuando haya terminado o si necesita parar antes de terminar, por favor SALGA de la encuesta haciendo CLIC en “Guardar y salir” y CIERRE TODAS las ventanas o pantallas del navegador para mantener sus respuestas protegidas. Por ejemplo, si usó Chrome o Safari para abrir la encuesta, asegúrese de que no quede abierta ninguna ventana o pantalla de Chrome o Safari después que usted termine la encuesta. Si usted no cierra todos los navegadores, alguien tal vez pueda ver sus respuestas.”;
- standard color scheme, consisting of a green and yellow horizontal bar beneath the three logos, and blue text boxes; and
- “English” and “Spanish” link options on the left side, beneath the ECLS logo, to give the respondent options to toggle the page between the two languages. If Spanish is chosen at any point on this page, it will continue to display the content of the instrument in Spanish.

Several screens will have:

- a “Logout” button, which is preset on all screens that appear after a login has occurred.

Respondents are directed to the Returning User - Spring page if they click the “Pick up where you left off.” button on Screen 1 (Home/Login – Spring). Here, the respondent must enter the email address or mobile number that they provided on Screen 5 (Eligible Response/Additional Security) to return to where they left off in the screener or survey. If the respondent enters an unrecognized email address or mobile number, the additional text in red on Screen 12 (Email/Mobile Validation Message – Spring) will be displayed and they will be given the option to try again. If they enter a recognized email address or mobile number, they will be sent a new, 6-digit temporary code in an email and/or text message, if provided by the respondent. The page will automatically redirect to Screen 13 (Login - Returning User - Spring), where the respondent should then enter the 6-digit temporary code found in their email or text message. The language for the email and/or text message used to provide the respondents with the 6-digit temporary code is provided in Attachment A.

Respondents who did not provide an email address or phone number will not be able to return to where they left off in the screener or survey. For security reasons, they will not be able to access their previous data and they must begin again at the very first eligibility question. These respondents may return to the MyECLS website and enter their initial PIN to start over at with the eligibility question. If they select the “Pick up where you left off.” button on Screen 1 (Home – Spring), they will be routed to Screen 11 (Returning User - Spring), which instructs the respondent to contact the ECLS help desk. The help desk will provide the respondent with their original PIN so that they can start their survey over again with the eligibility question.

Note that respondents are prompted to provide either an email address or mobile phone number:

- prior to entering the screener;
- if not previously provided, before moving to the parent survey; and
- if not previously provided, when clicking on the “Logout” button to leave any screen where it appears.

Respondents who choose to receive cash for their thank you will view this confirmation page after selecting the “Continue to claim your $5 in cash” on Screen 18 (Cash Thank You – Fall). Respondents may make last minute edits to the mailing address for their thank you at this point. If a respondent selects the “Edit my address” button on this screen, they will be routed to Screen 18a (Cash Thank You – Edit Address – Fall), where they can update any or all of the pre-filled fields. When the respondent navigates to Screen 18a from Screen 20, selecting the “Submit” button on Screen 18a will return the respondent back to Screen 20, with the updated address showing on the confirmation message. The address will be saved as a second variable and will not overwrite the original address from sampling.

The ECLS collects information during children's preschool through elementary years to help us better understand how family, school, community, and individual factors relate to children's development and learning over time.

Parents, educators, and policymakers can use information collected through the study to improve students' educational experiences.

The study is conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) within the U.S. Department of Education.

An example of the kind of valuable information the ECLS has provided in the past is below.

"We are happy to make a difference in education and the future of the early childhood program."

—Parent, Mason City, IA

WHAT KINDERGARTNERS KNOW AND CAN DO

Data from a previous ECLS collection found that among first-time kindergartners*:

66% were good at recognizing letters

94% were good at recognizing numbers and shapes and counting to 10

58% were good at understanding size comparisons, such as big, bigger, biggest

29% were good at understanding the first sounds of words

WHY IS THE ECLS SO IMPORTANT?

It is important to understand the different environments in which children live and learn because many factors in those environments influence children's school experiences and outcomes. The ECLS allows us to answer the following types of questions.

What knowledge and skills do children have when they start school? What educational activities do they do at home?

Do kindergartners cooperate with one another? How well do they pay attention to their teachers?

How healthy are kindergartners? What types of exercise or physical activities do they participate in?

How do children's knowledge, skills, and behaviors change over time? How do their school experiences change over time?

How well do children's kindergarten programs prepare them for the opportunities and challenges in later grades?

"I feel strongly that more parents should get involved to help improve the education system in this country. I am very excited and happy to be a part of this landmark study."

—Parent, Boston, MA

INSIGHTS FOR CLASSROOM PRACTICE

From previous ECLS data collections, we have learned that kindergartners whose teachers spent more time focusing on reading and writing skills showed greater learning in those areas during the school year than those whose teachers spent less time on such skills.*

Welcome to the Early Childhood Longitudinal Study (ECLS)

Bienvenido al Estudio Longitudinal de la Primera Infancia (ECLS, por sus siglas en inglés)

El estudio ECLS obtiene información durante los años de educación preescolar hasta la primaria para ayudarnos a entender mejor la manera en que la familia, la escuela, la comunidad y los factores individuales están relacionados con el desarrollo y aprendizaje de los niños a través del tiempo.

Los padres, los educadores y los legisladores pueden usar la información obtenida a través del estudio para mejorar las experiencias educativas de los estudiantes.

El estudio lo está llevando a cabo el Centro Nacional para Estadísticas de Educación (NCES, por sus siglas en inglés) en el Departamento de Educación de los Estados Unidos.

A continuación, se muestra un ejemplo del tipo de valiosa información que el estudio ECLS ha proporcionado en el pasado.

“Estamos muy contentos de tener impacto en educación y el futuro del programa de la primera infancia.”

—Padre/Madre, Mason City, IA

LO QUE LOS NIÑOS DE KINDERGARTEN SABEN Y PUEDEN HACER

De anteriores recolecciones de datos que hizo ECLS se encontró que entre los niños que asisten al kindergarten por primera vez *:

66%

El 66% reconocía bien las letras.

94%

El 94% reconocía bien los números y las figuras geométricas, y contaba bien hasta el número 10.

58%

El 58% entendía bien comparaciones de tamaño, como por ejemplo, reconocer un objeto grande, uno más grande que otro, y el más grande de todos.

29%

El 29% distinguía bien el sonido con que comienzan las palabras

*Fuente: America's Kindergartners (Los niños de kindergarten de los Estados Unidos), página vii y 25 (<https://nces.ed.gov/pubs2000/2000070.pdf>)

¿POR QUÉ EL ECLS ES TAN IMPORTANTE?

Es importante entender los diferentes ambientes en que los niños viven y aprenden, porque muchos factores de esos ambientes influyen en las experiencias y los resultados escolares de los niños. El ECLS nos permite responder los siguientes tipos de preguntas:

¿Qué conocimientos y habilidades tienen los niños cuando comienzan la escuela? ¿Qué actividades educativas hacen en el hogar?

¿Qué tan saludables son los niños que asisten a kindergarten? ¿En qué tipo de ejercicios o actividades físicas participan?

¿Los niños que asisten a kindergarten cooperan entre sí? ¿Qué tan bien ponen atención a sus maestros?

¿De qué manera cambian los conocimientos, las habilidades y los comportamientos de los niños a lo largo del tiempo? ¿Cómo cambian sus experiencias escolares a lo largo del tiempo?

¿Qué tan bien preparan los programas de kindergarten a los niños para las oportunidades y los desafíos en los grados posteriores?

“Creo firmemente que más padres o madres deberían involucrarse para ayudar a mejorar el sistema educativo en este país. Estoy muy emocionado(a) y feliz de ser parte de este estudio histórico.”

—Padre/Madre, Boston, MA

IDEAS PARA PONER EN PRÁCTICA EN UN SALÓN DE CLASES

De anteriores recolecciones de datos que hizo ECLS hemos aprendido que los niños que asisten a kindergarten y cuyos maestros pasaron más tiempo enfocándose en las habilidades de lectura y escritura, mostraron un mayor aprendizaje en esas áreas durante el año escolar que aquellos cuyos maestros pasaron menos tiempo en dichas habilidades.*
