Privacy Act Statement
Collection and Use of Personal Information

Section 1613(b) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allows us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed and could result in the loss of some benefits.

We will use the information to make a determination of eligibility for benefits. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To State agencies to enable them to assist in the effective and efficient administration of the Supplemental Security Income program; and
- To contractors and other Federal agencies, as necessary, for the purpose of assisting the Social Security Administration in the efficient administration of its programs.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) 60-0103, entitled Supplemental Security Income Record and Special Veterans Benefits, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1830. Additional information, and a full listing of all of our SORNs, is available on our website at www.ssa.gov/privacy.
