24b Describe any agreements in place that authorizes the information sharing or disclosure (e.g. Computer Matching Agreement, Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), or Information Sharing Agreement (ISA)).

An MOU, signed by Emory University, the University of North Carolina--Chapel Hill, and the University of Michigan, authorizes data and information sharing for the purposes of this study.

24c Describe the procedures for accounting for disclosures

Not applicable.

25 Describe the process in place to notify individuals that their personal information will be collected. If no prior notice is given, explain the reason.

At the beginning of the study eligible participants will be asked to review and electronically sign a study consent form that informs participants that personal identifying information will be collected and every effort will be made to keep this information confidential. The consent form will include an explanation of the study, risks and benefits of participation, duration of participation, contact information for individuals who can answer questions about the research study regarding participant rights and protections, the voluntary nature of participation, and the right to withdraw without penalty. Participant are provided with information to contact study staff if clarification is needed regarding consent processes.

26 Is the submission of PII by individuals voluntary or mandatory?

Voluntary
 Mandatory

27 Describe the method for individuals to opt-out of the collection or use of their PII. If there is no option to object to the information collection, provide a reason.

Participants can opt out of all PII questions that are not eligibility related. Also, participants can opt out of participating in the study altogether or withdraw from the study at any time.

28 Describe the process to notify and obtain consent from the individuals whose PII is in the system when major changes occur to the system (e.g., disclosure and/or data uses have changed since the notice at the time of original collection). Alternatively, describe why they cannot be notified or have their consent obtained.

All participants will be allowed to track study progress and to correspond with study management if any changes are made to the system. They will be able to contact the Emory study team or the Emory Institutional Review Board (IRB).

29 Describe the process in place to resolve an individual's concerns when they believe their PII has been inappropriately obtained, used, or disclosed, or that the PII is inaccurate. If no process exists, explain why not.

Study participants will be provided contact information and instruction to contact either the grantee principal investigators as well as the Emory human subjects staff if they have any questions about their rights as a participant or concerns that their PII may have been inappropriately obtained, used, or disclosed:

Emory IRB

Emory Study Team

iSTAMP@emory.edu

30 Describe the process in place for periodic reviews of PII contained in the system to ensure the data's integrity, availability, accuracy and relevancy. If no processes are in place, explain why not.

Participants will be able to update PII at each interval of study participation when filling out surveys for data collection purposes.

31 Identify who will have access to the PII in the system and the reason why they require access.

Users

Administrators

Developers

Contractors

Others

32 Describe the procedures in place to determine which system users (administrators, developers, contractors, etc.) may access PII.	The ability to designate specific roles in Emory's digital study software allows users to control permissions and accessibility to participant information. Staff accessing the system will be limited by which PII data is necessary to perform the duties of their position. Users also are limited to a reporting-only role, allowing for study oversight through real-time aggregate reporting, but no access to protected health information (PHI). The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) lacks access to these data.
33 Describe the methods in place to allow those with access to PII to only access the minimum amount of information necessary to perform their job.	Access to Sensitive PII will be restricted to individuals trained in human subject protections. PII is collected for a specific and identifiable purpose with access restricted to specific job tasks and individuals who perform those tasks. Assigned user permissions will be determined by their roles to perform different actions and need to view PII.
34 Identify training and awareness provided to personnel (system owners, managers, operators, contractors and/or program managers) using the system to make them aware of their responsibilities for protecting the information being collected and maintained.	All research personnel employed by Emory and subcontractors under this contract will have completed Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI) training before they are permitted to participate in research or view PII. All study staff will be trained on relevant study procedures prior to interacting with participants involved in study activities.
35 Describe training system users receive (above and beyond general security and privacy awareness training).	Emory researchers and study staff will participate in internal training on study instruments, procedures, and reporting regulations, which includes privacy awareness and confidentiality training. Graduate research assistants also must sign a code of conduct to ensure participants' safety and privacy.
36 Do contracts include Federal Acquisition Regulation and other appropriate clauses ensuring adherence to privacy provisions and practices?	<input type="radio"/> Yes <input checked="" type="radio"/> No
37 Describe the process and guidelines in place with regard to the retention and destruction of PII. Cite specific records retention schedules.	Records are retained and disposed of in accordance with the CDC Records Control Schedule 04-4-22 Family of HIV Surveys, Division of HIV/AIDS Prevention/Surveillance and Epidemiology, (N1-442-02-3-4, Item 1) and Division of HIV/AIDS Prevention/Surveillance and Epidemiology, (N1-442-02-3, Item 1). Record copy of study reports are maintained in agency records from two to three years in accordance with retention schedules. Source documents for computer are disposed of when no longer needed by program officials. Personal identifiers may be deleted from records when no longer needed in the study as determined by the system manager, and as provided in the signed consent form, as appropriate. Disposal methods include erasing computer disks or tapes, burning or shredding paper materials or transferring records to the Federal Records Center when no longer needed for evaluation and analysis. Cut off closed grant, contract, or cooperative agreement files at the end of the calendar year in which the project ends or a final report is written and destroy six years after cut off.

38 Describe, briefly but with specificity, how the PII will be secured in the system using administrative, technical, and physical controls.

Physical
 All printed records will be securely stored in locked file cabinets within locked offices and monitored during access. No names or other identifying information appear on data documents or in data files, as the re-contact information will be stored separately. Only designated staff will have access to the data.

Technical
 PII is stored in a database that provides staff with the minimum amount of data needed to perform tasks associated with their position. The application securely maintains participant information behind a firewall rendered over a Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) certificate for administrator-only access. All passwords are stored encrypted within the database, which also uses database level encryption to prevent information copying from one database to another. Web application also uses an automatic logout feature after a certain period of inactivity.

Administrative
 All respondents will receive unique identification non-identifiable codes, which will be stored separately from PII on a password protected computer. These codes will be used as the de-identified data set that will later be shared with CDC. CDC does not have access to the database. All staff collecting data will participate in a training that will review protections for privacy and confidentiality of all data, including PII. Only Principal Investigators may handle requests to examine data collected during this study.
